PRACTICE POLICY

Practices are held at the Sam Viersen Center, directly north and across Imhoff Street from the Lloyd Noble Center. Practices are typically open to the media; however, those who wish to attend must obtain clearance through Lindsey Morrison in the Athletics Communications Office prior to the start of practice. Practice generally runs from 1- 5 p.m. The best time to conduct interviews is immediately following practice.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Media credentials for home contests at the Lloyd Noble Center should be requested no later than one day prior to the event. Credentials will be issued to working media only. All requests should be directed to Lindsey Morrison in the Athletics Communications Office at (972) 49-3018 or by email to lindseymorrison@ou.edu.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Post-meet press conferences will take place in the interview room located off the north tunnel of the Lloyd Noble Center after head coach K.J. Kindler dismisses her athletes. Official score sheets will be available at the scorer's table.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Non-post-meet interview requests for athletes and coaches must be arranged through Lindsey Morrison in the Athletics Communications Office. All requests should be submitted at least one day in advance of the desired interview time.

CHAMPIONSHIP

LLOYD NOBLE CENTER

Centrally located in the heart of America, the Lloyd Noble Center features some of best collegiate athletics in the nation.

The home of OU men's and women's basketball and women's gymnastics, the Lloyd Noble Center's primary tenants have accumulated a combined eight Final Four appearances, four national championships and 47 conference titles.

Since its opening in 1975, nearly five million fans have come through the LNC doors in anticipation of a Sooner victory.

OU is to 108-4 inside Lloyd Noble Center since the arrival of head coach K.J. Kindler in 2007. The Sooners have posted 32 consecutive victories dating back to 2014 and the 2021 senior class has never lost a home meet in their career.

The Lloyd Noble Center has been host to some of the best gymnastics in the nation. The Big 12 Championships were most recently held at the LNC in 2019. In 2023, the Sooners will be one of four host sites for the NCAA Regionals.

SAM VIERSEN GYMNASTICS CENTER

Champions need a championship-caliber space to train and the OU women's gymnastics program has just that at the Sam Viersen Gymnastics Center.

One of the nation's premier collegiate training facilities, Sam Viersen is one of only a handful freestanding co-ed college gyms in the country. The facility was overhauled in 2010, including a 7,000 square-foot addition, and improvements have continued to be made to ensure that OU gymnasts have everything they need to be successful.

New graphics were installed in 2016 to showcase the success of the program, highlighting the national championships and All-American athletes who competed for Oklahoma.

With an addition and renovation in the future for the Sam Viersen Gymnastics Center, the University of Oklahoma is working toward creating an amazing facility for current and future gymnasts who choose to represent the Crimson and Cream.

The new space will greatly benefit the student-athletes, adding a team lounge, upgrading the training room and adding a room designated for conditioning.

"The addition of the locker rooms, team lounge, training room, wet room spa, massage room, leotard showroom, theater and fitness center will elevate our facility to rival the best the NCAA has to offer," head coach K.J. Kindler said.

"We are so fortunate for the support of Joe Castiglione and his unwavering motivation to push us forward. Our former and current student-athletes earned this amazing facility and the upgrade for future Sooners is a legacy they leave behind. Thank you to everyone who has and will contribute to this much needed capital project."

HEADINGTON HALL

Opened in July of 2013, Headington Hall houses 380 OU students, including 180 student-athletes. The facility is named in honor of former OU tennis player Tim Headington, one of many OU alumni who gave generously to the project.

Located on the corner of Jenkins Ave. and Lindsey St., southeast and across the street from Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the facility boasts apartment-style accommodations in two- and four-bedroom units. Each suite features at least two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a kitchenette and a living room. Suites come prefurnished with modular couches and ottomans so students can set-up their new home just how they want it. The building also includes central dining, computer labs and study rooms, as well as a faculty-in-residence unit.

The $75 million facility, which replaced Bud Wilkinson Hall, was funded by the University of Oklahoma Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The first floor features Einstein's Bagels, Bee Healthy Café and Beauty and Designz Studio Lounge, with room for future development.

The facility is six stories tall and approximately 230,000 square feet, giving it a significant campus presence. It is designed in the style of the University's historic buildings, as well as modern additions.

Former Sooners Adrian Peterson and Sam Bradford made substantial donations to Headington Hall. The Sam Bradford Training Table is a state-of-the-art dining facility that fulfills the dietary and nutritional needs of all OU student-athletes, not just the residents of Headington Hall, in a vastly expanded modern space.

Multiple cooking stations give our talented chefs every opportunity to dazzle your taste buds. Many of the tasty dishes at Wagner Dining Hall come from a menu prepared by OU Athletics' own nutritionist, and are especially designed for athletic performance needs. Fresh vegetables, salad bars and fresh fruit are plentiful. To ensure proper hydration, the drink station includes numerous options.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Oklahoma Athletics Department feels a strong responsibility to help its athletes reach and maintain their optimum health and achieve conditioning goals. For this reason, OU has developed excellent training and conditioning programs to lessen the possibility of injuries.

Jenn Richardson is responsible for the daily care, treatment, rehab and prevention of injuries for the women's gymnastics program. She enters her 16th season at OU in 2022.

Renovations are complete at Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. The project included a new strength and conditioning room, training room, nutrition center, meeting rooms and the equipment operation. Student-athletes from all 21 OU sports will benefit from the space. The OU sports medicine department is expanding and nutritional offerings are growing, which means it can maintain health and rehabilitate at the highest level.

OPTIMUM NUTRITION

After serving a year and a half as a graduate assistant, another three years as assistant director and most of the 2020-21 academic year as interim director, Rachel Suba has assumed the role of director of sports nutrition for the Sooners. A former competitive gymnast and current powerlifter, the Cleveland, Ohio, native puts her background in culinary arts to use in keeping OU's student-athletes fueled for success. Each day, Suba and her staff aim to leave an impact that stretches beyond the playing field.

"My ultimate job is to fuel these athletes for sport and life after sport," says Suba. "Their time as athletes is a small portion of the rest of their lives. They will take with them the lessons they learn during their time here at OU — creating a positive relationship with food that will affect them later in life."

Suba educates the Sooners using a three-pillared philosophy that emphasizes the importance of proper fueling. The goal, Suba says, is to optimize performance by maximizing adaptations to training, boosting recovery time and enhancing body composition. A successful nutrition plan will increase energy levels and decrease injury risk while leading to a healthier and improved lifestyle.

FLAGSHIP UNIVERSITY

Established in 1890, the University of Oklahoma is the state's flagship public research university and leader in research, health care and academic activity impacting the state of Oklahoma, nation and world. Guided by its fundamental purpose of changing lives, OU upholds its core traditions of creating opportunity for the leaders of tomorrow, building a culture of inclusivity and advancing society through cutting-edge research discoveries.

For well over a century, generations of students have found purpose and meaning through an OU education, and Oklahomans and people all across the world have benefited from the university's ingenuity and resourcefulness.

The Norman campus enrolls more than 27,000 undergraduate and graduate students, the Health Sciences Center in Oklahoma City enrolls more than 3,000 students and the OU-Tulsa campus enrolls more than 1,000.

In July 2020, the University of Oklahoma launched "Lead On, University" — the first Strategic Plan for the Norman campus in over a generation — which draws upon 130 years of history and the feedback of thousands of students, faculty, staff and alumni to define a clear plan for the Norman campus' future and comprehensive strategies to achieve it.

The plan is built upon five overarching pillars that stem from OU's core traditions of providing a world-class, affordable education, creating a welcoming place of belonging and harnessing innovation and pathbreaking discoveries to advance society. Each pillar is supported by targeted strategies and specific tactics to help achieve them.

OU reached a record-high $445.9 million in research awards earned through grants and external funding by university faculty and staff in fiscal year 2020, representing a 21.85% increase over FY2019. Today, the university ranks in the top 12th percentile nationally in research activity and impact. OU researchers are partnering with the state of Oklahoma, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, National Institutes of Health, National Science Foundation, Department of Defense, U.S. Department of Education, Department of Energy as well as many other funding agencies and private sector corporations that support OU students and their education through research.

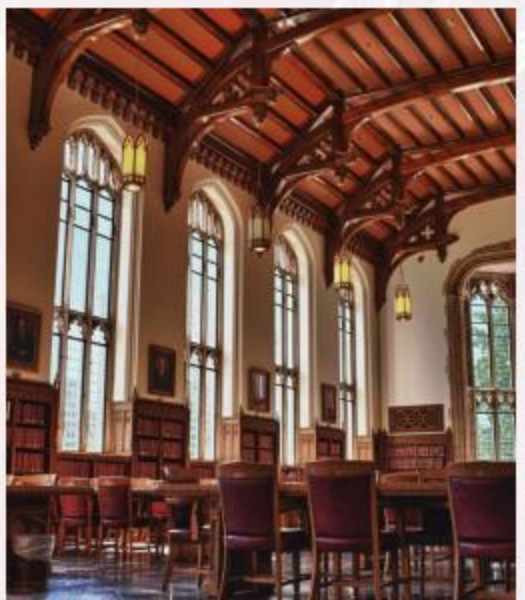
OU's Class of 2024 was one of its most diverse freshman classes in its 130-year history, with over 35% of students identifying as minorities. The class included 4,422 freshmen — the third-largest class in OU history. Nearly a quarter of the students in the entering class were first-generation college students.

OU announced the launch of OU Online, a central division that delivers the university's online graduate degree programs, expanding OU's ability to reach students in Oklahoma and beyond. Designed for adult learners seeking career advancement, OU Online's programs offer specialized graduate degrees in a variety of professional fields.

In 2019-20, more than $31 million was awarded to students, including student-athletes, on all three campuses from privately funded scholarships.

OU is the only public university in Oklahoma to be selected as a Best Value College for 2021 by the Princeton Review which includes only 1.2 percent of all U.S. four-year universities.

Over the last 20 years, more than 2.5 billion in private funds have been raised for facility construction, scholarships, faculty support and innovative programs.



ACADEMICEXCELLENCE

BIG 12 HONORS

Eleven members of the top-ranked Oklahoma women's gymnastics team were named 2021 Academic All-Big 12 selections.

In each of head coach K.J. Kindler's 15 seasons at the helm of the OU program, at least five Sooners have received academic accolades from the Big 12. Kindler's teams have now earned a total of 124 such awards in her time at Oklahoma.

First team members consist of those who have maintained a 3.20 or better GPA while the second team selections hold a 3.00 to 3.19 GPA.

To qualify, student-athletes must maintain a 3.00 GPA or higher either cumulative or the two previous semesters and must have participated in 20 percent of their team's scheduled contests. Freshmen and transfers are not eligible in their first year of academic residence. Senior student-athletes who have participated for a minimum of two years and meet all the criteria except percent of participation are also eligible.

SCHOLASTIC ALL-AMERICANS

Seventeen members of the 2021 Oklahoma women's gymnastics team received Scholastic All-America honors from the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA). The Sooners posted a 3.592 team GPA for the 2020-21 academic year.

OU has now captured at least five spots on the Scholastic All-America list for 15 straight years. Under head coach K.J. Kindler, Oklahoma gymnasts have earned a total of 130 awards from the WCGA. The 17 selections in 2021 mark a program best.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Six OU gymnasts have earned one of the most prestigious academic honors, earning All-America accolades from CoSIDA. The Academic All-America program recognizes athletes success on and off the field.

In 2021, Anastasia Webb becamse the first gymast since 2014 to earn All-America honors. Webb joined Lara Albright (2014), Rebecca Clark (2013), Megan Fergusen (2012), Haley DeProspero (2008. 2009) and Brittney Koncak-Schumann (2006, 2007).

LaPINTA FIRST ELITE 90 RECIPIENT

In 2021, Emma LaPinta became the first OU gymnast to earn the NCAA Elite 90 Award. LaPinta, a communications major, was just the fourth Sooner to ever recieve the award joining Lily Miyazaki (women's tennis, 2017-18), C.J. Cole (men's basketball, 2015-16) and Kim Moldenhauer (rowing, 2012-13).

The Elite 90, an award founded by the NCAA, recognizes the true essence of the student-athlete by honoring the individual who has reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level in his or her sport, while also achieving the highest academic standard among his or her peers. The Elite 90 is presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's championships.

LaPinta was also named the Big 12 Winter Scholar Athlete of the Year in 2021. She was the 14th Sooner to recieve the honor in conference history and the first gymnast.

STUDY ABROAD

Over the past eight years, more than 160 OU student-athletes have studied abroad in 23 countries. Although COVID-19 abruptly halted programs for 2020, one student was able to study economics in London in the summer of 2021.

The COVID-19 interruption gave OU the opportunity to more strategically plan for the needs of its student-athletes, creating opportunities that are even more dynamic for each sport. Currently, over 30 study abroad programs are in place. The excitement among student-athletes is high for 2022 spring and summer study abroad programs and organizers are eager to begin the enrollment period in early October.

A record number of participants is expected for the upcoming year. Student-athletes earn up to six credit hours during short-term programs and up to 15 credit hours during semester-long programs.

CONFERENCERECOGNITION

THE SOONERS HAVE HAD AT LEAST TWO FIRST-TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 MEMBERS ALL 24 YEARS OF THE CONFERENCE'S EXISTENCE. FIVE OR MORE SOONERS HAVE BEEN NAMED TO THE TEAM EVERY SEASON OF K.J. KINDLER'S TENURE AS HEAD COACH AT OKLAHOMA, INCLUDING A PROGRAM-RECORD 12 IN 2017.

2014, 2016, 2017, 2019 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

BOOMERSOONER

THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA HAS A LONG AND STORIED HISTORY. THE RICH TRADITION HAS GIVEN BIRTH TO SOME OF THE MOST RECOGNIZED PAGEANTRY IN ALL OF COLLEGE ATHLETICS. HERE IS A LOOK AT THE ORIGIN OF SOME OF THE ELEMENTS THAT CREATE THE WONDERFUL ATMOSPHERE SO UNIQUE TO OU.

SOONERS

College sports fans are hard-pressed to find a nickname that is as unique and as tied in to a state's history as a Sooner. The University of Oklahoma is the only school known as Sooners and those who claim that they are Sooners say it with pride.

The Oklahoma Territory opened with the Land Run of 1889. Settlers from across the globe, seeking free land, made their way to the prairies of the plains to stake their claim. One of the few rules to claiming a lot of land was that all participants were to start at the same time, on the boom of a cannon. All settlers who started then were labeled as "Boomers" and the ones who went early were called "Sooners."

OU athletic teams were called either Rough Riders or Boomers for 10 years before the current Sooner nickname emerged in 1908. The university actually derived its name from a pep club called "The Sooner Rooters." The success of University of Oklahoma athletics teams over the years has made the nickname synonymous with winning.

BOOMER SOONER

One of the most recognizable college fight songs in the country, Boomer Sooner immediately evokes enthusiasm from OU fans and sends chills down the spines of those who dare to oppose them.

In 1905, Arthur M. Alden, a student in history and physiology whose father was a Norman jeweler, wrote the lyrics to the fight song, borrowing the tune from Yale University's Boola Boola but improvising the words. A year later, an addition was made to it from North Carolina's I'm a Tarheel Born and the two combined to form today's university fight song. Though the tune was first made known by Yale, the everlasting success of Sooner squads has taken the melody of Boomer Sooner to national popularity.

RAH OKLAHOMA, OK U!

MASCOTS

The Sooner Schooner is a Conestoga, or covered wagon, reminiscent of the mode of travel used by pioneers who settled Oklahoma. The Schooner is powered by matching white ponies named Boomer and Sooner, and it ventures onto Owen Field in a triumphant victory ride after OU scores. Although the Schooner was introduced in 1964, it did not become the official mascot until 1980. The Schooner is well-recognized by college athletics fans across the country and makes regular appearances at university functions.

During OU football and baseball games from 1915-1928, Mex the Dog wore a red sweater with a letter "O" on the side. Mex died of old age on April 30, 1928, and he was so popular among students and faculty that the university closed for his funeral and procession on May 2, 1928.

In the fall of 2005, the OU Athletics Deparment introduced costumed mascots. The new characters will act as an extension of the Sooner Schooner and its horses to be enjoyed by fans, especially children, at all OU athletics contests. The costumes feature traditional collegiate gear as part of their regular uniform, but will don team uniforms for football and men's and women's basketball. They were voted "Most Collegiate" by the Universal Cheerleading Association (UCA).

CRIMSON AND CREAM

In the fall of 1895, Miss May Overstreet, the only woman on the faculty, was asked to chair a committee to select the colors of the university. The committee decided the colors should be crimson and cream and an elaborate display of the colors was draped above a platform before the student body.

The student body approved with great enthusiasm and immediately pennants, banners, badges and decorations of every description appeared on the streets, in the windows, at chapel, in classrooms and all public places; however, local merchants could not supply the demand.

Even though the school colors have evolved to red and white over the years, you can ask any self-respecting Sooner what the colors are and they will proudly announce "Crimson and Cream."

On gamedays, a sea of crimson rolls through OU's home venues and all Sooners are urged to wear the official colors to show the rest of the country what school spirit and Sooner Pride is all about.

PRIDE OF OKLAHOMA

The Pride of Oklahoma Marching Band has been supporting Sooner Spirit for more than a century. Unlike many other college bands, which began as military drill units, the Pride of Oklahoma had its beginnings as a pep band.

In the early years of the 1900s, both townspeople of Norman and students of OU participated in a band that played for football games. Professor John Merrill started the first band in 1901, which was composed mostly of townspeople and disbanded after each football season. Lloyd Curtis, a cornetist, founded the first continuous student band in 1904.

Today, the 300-member Pride of Oklahoma has members representing virtually every college and major on campus. The Pride of Oklahoma stands for excellence in musicianship, academics, school spirit, and commitment to our role in the surrounding community.

Boomer Sooner rings out at the end of each rehearsal, and that song is the defining element of the University of Oklahoma. Maybe that is why Sooner fans love the band so much. Not much can compare to the first "go-go" at a football game when the Pride of Oklahoma marches the interlocking OU down the field playing Boomer Sooner.

OU CHANT

The OU Chant is a loyalty song that is sung before every home football game, before and after every men's and women's basketball games and at the end of many athletic and university functions.

Every fan who wears the official colors, each current student and student-athlete and all OU alumni are encouraged to stand and raise one finger in the air during the playing of the Chant - a symbolic gesture that shows those who do not know what it means to be a Sooner, the greatness of the university and the unity between all Sooners.

The Chant was written in 1936 by Jessie Lone Clarkson Gilkey, who directed the OU girl's glee club from 1936 to 1938 and was voted Outstanding Faculty Woman in 1937.

THE CITY OF NORMAN

Norman is an ever-changing city of nearly 120,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma landrush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and smart city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents desired to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit." Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletic events.

In the last six years alone, Norman has served as host of the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship, an NCAA men's golf regional, NCAA softball regionals, NCAA men's and women's gymnastics regionals, NCAA women's tennis regionals, NCAA track and field regional, NCAA soccer first rounds and the NCAA women's basketball regionals. In addition, the Big 12 Conference Men's and Women's Tennis, Track and Field, Wrestling, Women's Golf, and Women's Gymnastics Championships were held in Norman.

Cultural activities are unlimited in Norman, making it the ideal backdrop for the University of Oklahoma. As home to people of all ethnic and educational backgrounds, the city has something to offer everyone. Norman is home to a variety of enriching events and attractions, including the Sooner Theater, which hosts a series of entertaining theatrical performances produced by locally-based talent and touring companies.

The $44 million Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History, a state-of-the-art facility designed to display a collection of historical and natural science items that trace the southwest's development since prehistoric times, opened in May 2000. History buffs will also enjoy the Cleveland Country Historical House which holds exhibits relating to the development of this area of the state.

For art enthusiasts, the Fred Jones Jr. Memorial Art Center houses permanent collections, nationally and world-renowned traveling exhibits as well as a yearly student art show. The museum has recently added the Weitzenhoffer Collection of French Impressionist paintings - the single most important gift of art ever given to a U.S. public university.

Maintaining a progressive approach to the future while remembering its history, Norman continues to be a well-balanced community, proud to be the home of the University of Oklahoma.

OKLAHOMACITY

Oklahoma City, the capital of Oklahoma, is located just 18 miles from the Norman campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position as the center of the state. It is because of this central location that Oklahoma City has become known as the home of America's Western heritage. Whether adventure, history, culture or sports, Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country.

Oklahoma City was born on the afternoon of April 22, 1889, when the central portion of what is now Oklahoma was opened to settlement by presidential proclamation. Thousands crossed the borders of "unassigned lands" at the sound of gunfire at high noon. Never before or since has such a "run" occurred anywhere on the earth.

By the time the dust had settled on that historic day, many people had staked their claim at "Oklahoma Station," an area which was destined to become Oklahoma City, a leading city in America. In 1911, Oklahoma City officially became the capital after a statewide election moved the state seal from Guthrie.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It is home of an NBA team in the Oklahoma City Thunder, two semi-professional sports teams and the host of the NCAA Women's College Softball World Series and Big 12 Baseball Championship. In addition, the city has hosted numerous PGA and Senior PGA Tour events.

The Thunder call the Paycom Center in downtown OKC home. The sparkling arena has recently hosted an NCAA Volleyball Final Four in addition to major musical acts like Justin Timberlake, Bruno Mars, Eric Church, Ariana Grande and more.

The Oklahoma City Dodgers, 1996 American Associate champions (then as the Oklahoma City 89ers), are the Triple-A baseball affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers. The team plays in the 13,000-plus seat Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark, one of the plushest venues in all of minor league sports. The ballpark served as host to a 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007 NCAA baseball regionals and hosts the Big 12 Baseball Championship on an annual basis.

STARTING OUT STRONG

After a tumultuous and heartbreaking end to the 2020 season, the Sooners returned to competition ready to pick up where they left off. Opening at home for the first time since 2017, OU welcomed Arizona State to the Llyod Noble Center, defeating the Sun Devils 197.450-194.725.

Carly Woodard made her debut on floor after serving as a beam specialist for three years, earning a career-high 9.825. Freshmen Audrey Davis, Katherine LeVasseur and Audrey Lynn made an immediate with LeVasseur and Lynn each taking home event titles. LeVasseur took home the first of many titles on the uneven bars while Lynn secured her first career vault title with her unique pike front half.

TOP THREE MATCHUP

For the first time in 29 years, Oklahoma and Utah competed against each other in a regular season meet. The matchup was highly touted as the history behind both teams set the stage for an impressive showdown. The Sooners edged out the Red Rocks, 197.025-196.550, thanks to a strong finish on floor that sealed the victory.

Sophomore Jenna Dunn, who became a staple in the beam lineup in 2020, showcased a crowd favorite in her triple series before nailing her gainer full dismount. Dunn's 9.9 on beam was one of the highest scores of the day. Emma LaPinta earned her first career event title with the best routine of the night on floor and a 9.9 for her impressive triple twist and solid double tuck.

ROAD WARRIORS

On the road after grinding out a tough over West Virginia, the Sooners soared to an impressive 197.800 against Denver and Temple. The beam team responded after two weeks of struggles by posting a then-nation best 49.625 on the event.

The team counted only scores of 9.9 or higher as Jenna Dunn earned a career-high 9.925 and Vanessa Deniz added a career-best 9.9. Audrey Davis and Ragan Smith led the way for the Sooners with matching 9.950s. Allie Stern and Evy Schoepfer each nailed their vaults to close out the meet with identical 9.95s and a new career high for Schoepfer.

METROPLEX MILESTONES

At the annual Metroplex Challenge in Fort Worth, Texas, the Sooners posted the nation's highest score and gave head coach K.J. Kindler her 400th win as the head coach of Oklahoma. The Sooners were on fire from start to finish as they tallied a 198.225 and an incredible 49.750 on vault.

Anastasia Webb earned a perfect 10.0 on vault and took home event titles on beam (9.975), floor (9.950) and the all-around (9.725). Audrey Davis broke out her Yurchenko 1.5 for the first time, nailing it for a 9.925. Evy Schoepfer was nearly perfect on vault with a 9.975 on her tucked 1.5.

With Ragan Smith out unexpectedly, Vanessa Deniz stepped in on three events for the Sooners and had a career night with a 9.9 on bars and floor and a career high 9.925 on beam.

Karrie Thomas moved to the No. 5 position on beam and made the most of it with a career-high 9.95 and Webb was nearly perfect as the anchor with a 9.975 to help the Sooners to a 49.525 on the event.

OU finished up the meet with a strong 49.500 on floor. Jordan Draper's high energy routine started things off with a 9.9 and Webb anchored with a season and career-best 9.950 to wrap up the meet for the Sooners.

500 AND COUNTING

Two weeks after earning a milestone win, head coach K.J. Kindler picked up yet another with her 500th career win in a quad meet hosted inside the LNC. The Sooners topped Denver, TWU and Lindenwood in a meet that saw Audrey Davis take home a pair of event titles.

Davis earned a career-high on her Yurchenko 1.5 with a 9.95, followed by a 9.95 on uneven bars for her fifth title of the season. Jenna Dunn and Karrie Thomas shared the beam title as the Sooners remained undefeated.

SENIOR SALUTE

Celebrating the careers of Jordan Draper, Evy Schoepfer, Karrie Thomas, Anastasia Webb and Carly Woodard, the Sooners closed out the home season with an incredible 197.800 against BYU.

The five member senior class was part of one national championship team, two runner-up teams, two Big 12 Championship teams and three regional championships.

Three seniors claimed event titles as Webb earned her second perfect 10.0 on beam and third of her career, while also taking home titles on vault (9.9) and the all-around (39.500). Thomas took home a share of the uneven bars title (9.9) and Evy Schoepfer took home a share of floor (9.925).

After the meet, Thomas and Woodard both announced that they would be returning for a fifth and final season in 2022.

DOUBLE THE FUN

The only thing better than one perfect score? Two perfect scores back-to-back. In the final regular season meet of the year, Anastasia Webb and Evy Schoepfer tallied back-to-back perfect 10s on vault at TWU.

This was the third time in program history that two athletes went back-to-back with perfect scores with Webb being a part of two of the three monumental occasions.

The perfect score was Schoepfer's first of her career and fourth for Webb who picke d up her second perfect 10 on vault.

Webb swept the event titles and earned a career-high 39.850 in the all-around as the Sooners tallied a 197.950 in the tri-meet. Olivia Trautman made her return to the vault lineup with a 9.925 and Katherine LeVasseur earned a career-best 9.95 on bars.

JUST KEEP FIGHTING

A strong fight fell just short at the 2021 Big 12 Championship as the Sooners came in second to Denver, who claimed their first ever conference crown. After a storng start on bars, the Sooners struggled to find their rythym and fell just .225 short of a 13th Big 12 crown.

Following the conclusion of the meet, Big 12 Yearly awards were announced with Anastasia Webb being named the Co-Big 12 Gymnast of the Year along with Denver's Lynnzee Brown. Karrie Thomas was named the Event Specialist of the Year for the first time in her career and head coach K.J. Kindler was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year for the 13th time and first since 2018.

Webb earned a pair of Big 12 individual titles with a 9.925 on vault and a 9.95 on beam. Webb shared the beam title with sophomore Ragan Smith, who earned her first career Big 12 title.

ON TO THE FINALS

After a tough loss at the Big 12 Championship, the Sooners rebounded impressively to advance to the Tuscaloosa Regional Final. OU cruised into the final with a 198.000, the highest score in the nation on night one thanks to a perfect 10.0 from Anastasia Webb on bars.

Webb's perfect score was only the second in school history at a regional competition and her fourth of the season. Olivia Trautman made her return to the all-around as she competed on floor for the first time this season. Trautman's return was a big one as she earned her second regional title on the event.

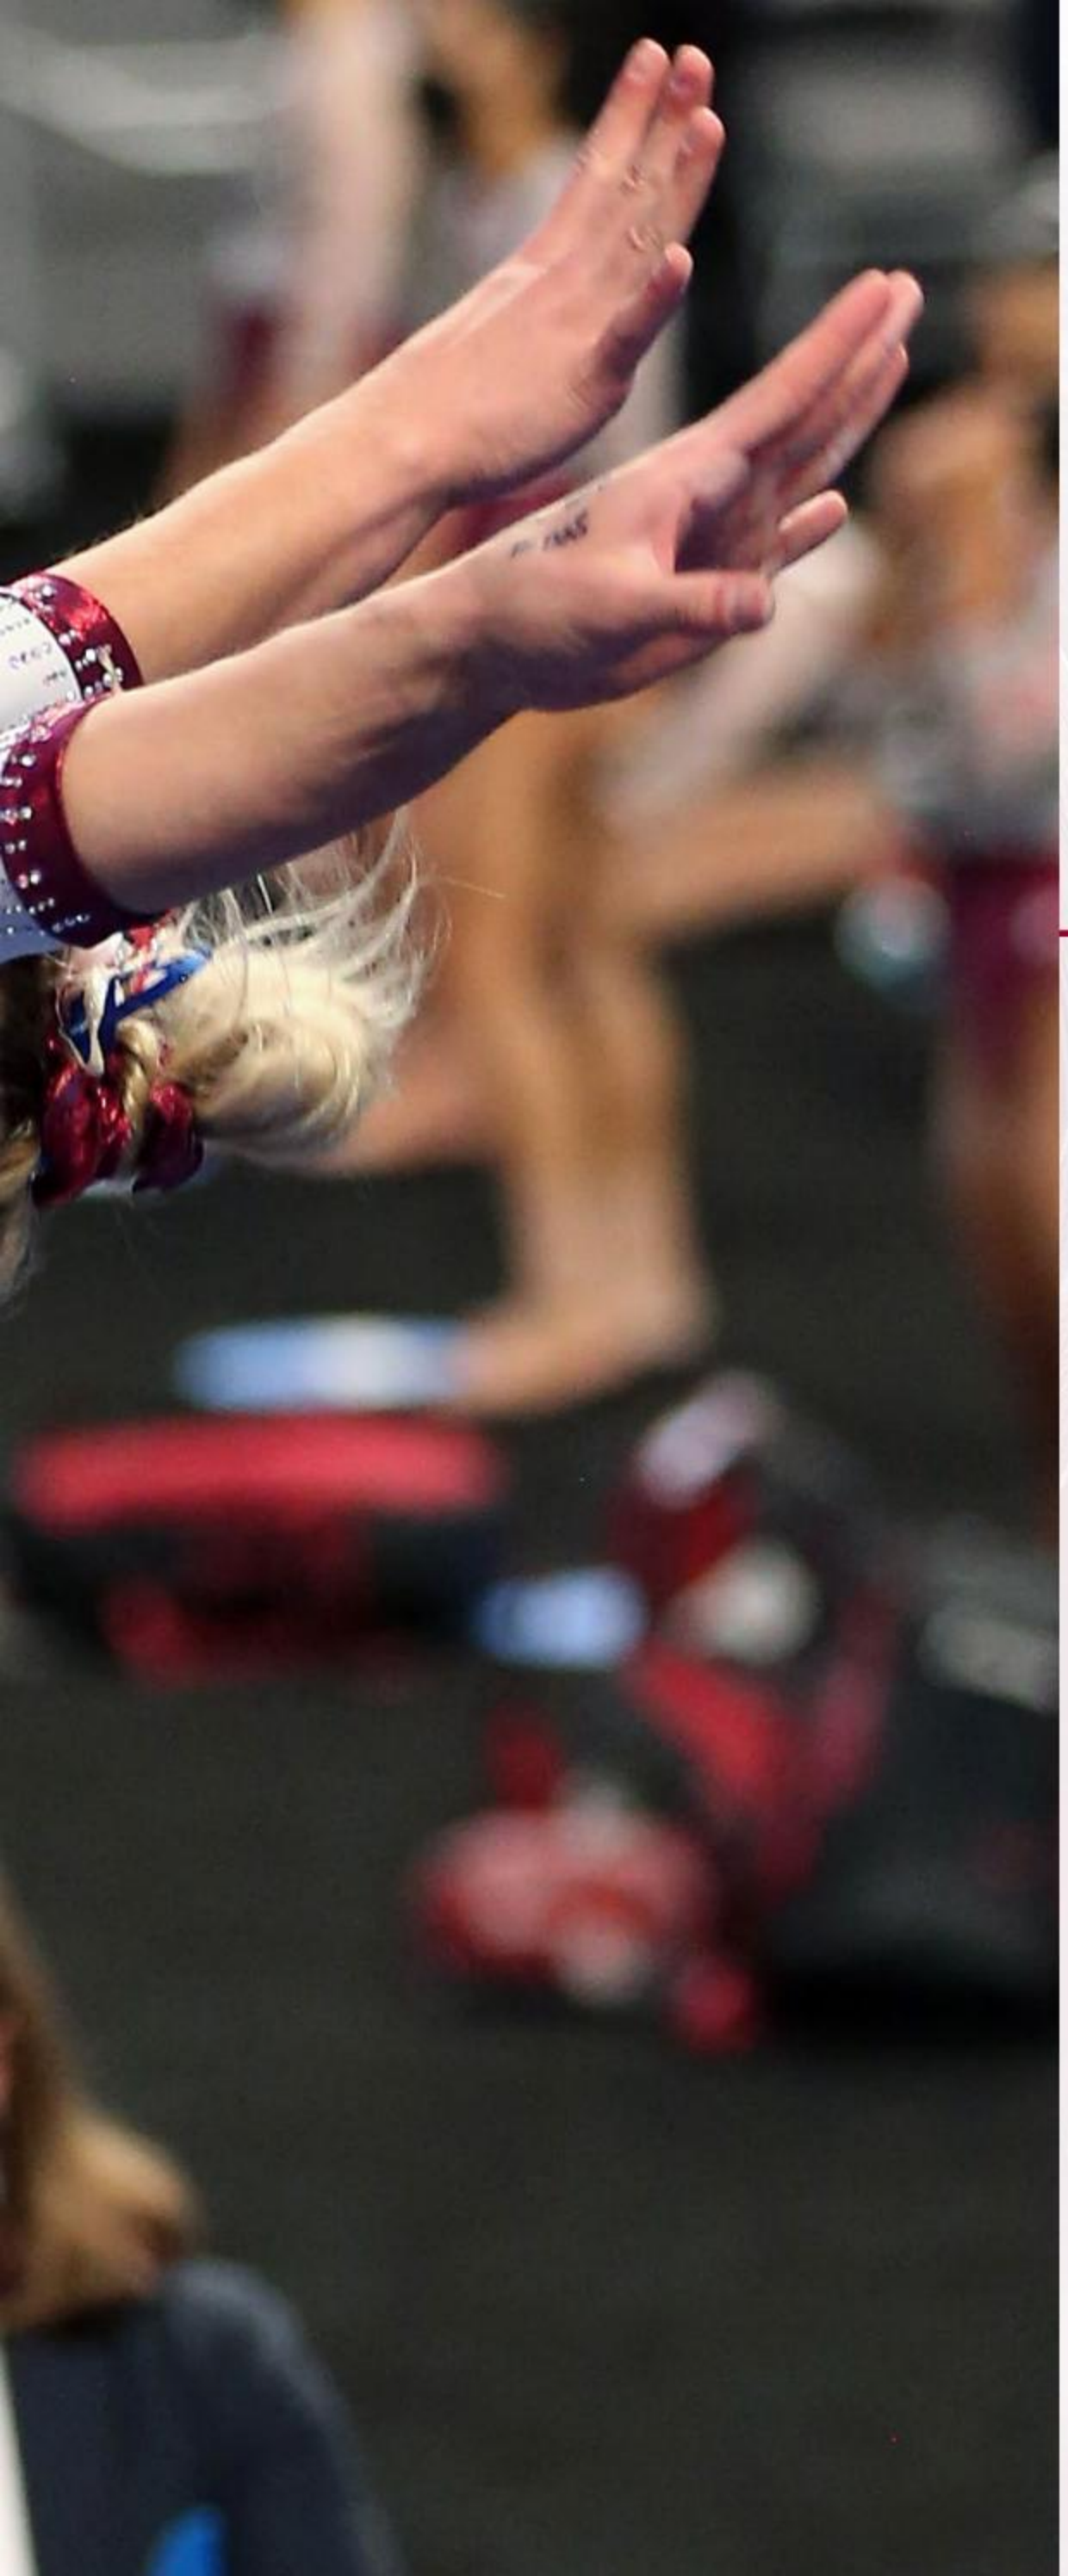
Webb also joined Trautman as a floor champion as the duo tallied matching 9.95s. Karrie Thomas was nearly perfect on beam earning a career-high 9.975.

WIN AND ADVANCE

For the 17th straight season, the Sooners advanced to the NCAA Championships picking up their 11th-straight regional crown. The Sooners knocked off Alabama in historical fashion, becoming the first team to ever beat Alabama in a regional competition in their home arena.

Olivia Trautman became the third Sooner in program history to earn a perfect score at regional competition with a 10.0 on vault. Webb was nearly perfect on beam with a 9.975 to earn the all-around title with a 39.700. Evy Schoepfer notched a career-high on floor with a 9.925.

The Sooners were the only team to record a 198-plus in both nights of regional competition as they recorded a 198.00 in the second round and a 198.175 in the finals. After an up and down season, the Sooners found their stride in postseason competition.



FINALS BOUND

In what most considered the toughest semifinal of the NCAA Championships, the Sooners finished in first place to make their eighth straight and 10th overall appearance in the team finals. The Sooners posted the top score of both rotations inside Dickies Arena in Fort Worth, Texas, with a 198.0875.

OU defeated Alabama, LSU and Utah to advance to the finals on Saturday night. The Sooners were joined by Utah, who they had bested in week two of the season.

OU put up some of its best scores of the year, tallying a 49.525 on vault, a 49.525 on beam and an incredible 49.6375 on floor. Jordan Draper put on a show for her hometown crowd with a 9.9125 on floor.

At the end of the meet, six Sooners earned 15 All-America honors and Emma LaPinta was awarded the Elite 90 Award for having the highest GPA of any student-athlete at the final competition.

WEBB WINS

Anastasia Webb had a night to remember as she was crowned the NCAA All-Around, Vault and Floor Champion. The Morton Grove, Ill., native tallied a 39.7875 to take home the all-around title and become the third ever Sooner to win the all-around joining Maggie Nichols (2018, 2019) and Kelly Garrison (1987, 1988).

Underrated and often overlooked throughout her career, Webb made sure everyone would remember her name for years to come as just the ninth gymnast in NCAA history to earn three titles in one championship.

Webb also shared the vault championship with a 9.975 and floor with a 9.9625.

Ending the night on vault, Webb was in control of the all-around title but needed a near-perfect performance to seal the deal. Michigan's Sierra Broooks had already recorded a 39.650 earlier in the day and Alabama's Luisa Blanco would be tough competition in the second semifinal. Webb performed a beautiful 1.5 to earn a 9.975 and claim the all-around crown by just .1375.

NCAA
NATIONAL RUNNER-UP

RISE AND SHINE

The Sooners capped off their 2021 season as the NCAA National Runner-Up with an incredible 198.1625 in the final day of competition as Michigan won its first ever national title. The second place finish marked the Sooners' eight consecutive top-three finish and fifth-straight top-two finish.

The meet came down to the wire and a battle between the final performers for both teams. Olivia Trautman anchored the floor lineup with an incredible 9.9375. but a 9.925 on beam from Abby Heiskell of Michigan was enough to keep the Wolverines ahead by a narrow .0875

Jordan Draper went out with a bang, earning a career-high 9.9375 on bars in her final competition. Allie Stern saved her best vault of the season for last, sticking it cold for a 9.950. Trautman nailed her 1.5 for a 9.9625 in the anchor spot. With the meet coming down to the wire, Webb left everything she had on the floor as she earned a meet-best 9.9625 on floor in her final performance as a Sooner.

The final performer, Trautman gave it her all earning a 9.9375 to close out the meet and keep the Sooners ahead of Utah for second place.

LOOKINGF

HOME SWEET HOME

The home schedule for the Sooners can rival anyone in the nation in 2022. Three preseason top-10 powerhouse programs including Alabama, Denver and the reigning NCAA champion Michigan will all make their way to Lloyd Noble Center.

The 2021 schedule opens on January 9 with a tough Alabama team on ESPN2. Ranked No. 6 in the preseason coaches' poll, the Crimson Tide are especially strong on bars and beam. In their last meeting, OU defeated the Tide at the NCAA Regional Championship in Tuscaloosa, earning a position in the coveted final eight. OU will need to be spot on in 2021 with this challenging opener.

Reigning Big 12 Champion Denver will make the trek to the LNC on January 30 for yet another ESPN2 matchup. In 2021, the Pioneers snapped OU's eight-year streak at the top of the conference. The Sooners have circled this meet on their calendar as one of the most highly anticipated meets of the year in Norman.

The LNC will be packed for the final home meet of the season and a rematch of the national championship vs Michigan on March 4. An epic clash is sure to ensue as the Wolverines return most of their national championship squad. Former Sooner Maile'ana Kanewa-Hermelyn will return to her alma mater as an assistant coach for Michigan.

In February, the Sooners will also welcome TWU (Feb. 4) and George Washington (Feb. 11). Under Kindler, the Sooners are 114-4 inside the LNC. OU has not lost a home meet since Feb. 9, 2014.

MOVING ON

The Sooners will lose three incredible seniors from the 2021 group, including three-time individual national champion Anastasia Webb. The losses total eight competitive positions including two on vault, two on bars, one on beam and three on floor.

Webb, the 2021 NCAA All-Around, Vault and Floor Champion, leaves large holes on all four events. Webb received The Iron Woman award in her senior season for competing in every single meet of her career at OU.

Jordan Draper turned in OU's highest bar sscore in NCAA finals and her high energy performance on floor in the starting position will need to be replaced. Additionally, Evy Schoepfer's powerful vault and floor routines will create vacancies in both lineups.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Sooners will be tested early and often away from the friendly confines of the Lloyd Noble Center in 2022. One of the biggest tests of the season will be against Utah in Salt Lake City. In an arena that sells out to a crowd of over 15,000, the Sooners will have a challenge ahead to top the Red Rocks in a hostile environment.

The following week, the Sooners will continue their Pac-12 challenge as they head to Arizona for the first time since 2014. Former Sooner and 2014 NCAA Beam National Champion Taylor Spears will be coaching the Wildcats.

Another tough challenge awaits the Sooners in The Swamp. OU will head to Gainesville, Fla., to take on preseason No. 2 Florida. This will be the first time since 2018 that the Sooners have faced the Gators on the road.

OU will have a chance to compete on podium ahead of the NCAA Championships as the Sooners look to defend their title at the Metroplex Challenge. A strong field awaits OU with Denver, Stanford and Washington set to compete.

The Sooners will wrap up their road slate with a quad meet at TWU and a tri-meet at Arizona State.

The Big 12 Championship will also be held on podium at Denver in late March.

BACK FOR MORE

With COVID-19 derailing the end of their junior seasons and being granted an extra year of eligibility, Karrie Thomas and Carly Woodard return for a final season in 2022. Woodard has been a standout beam specialist since her freshman year in 2018. Thomas, the 2021 Big 12 Event Specialist of the Year, will get to have her fourth season with the Sooners after transferring from Maryland in 2019.

"It's such a joy," Kindler said. "It's unexpected because you never think you're going to have an athlete have that opportunity. I'm so honored and excited that they chose to come back. Neither of them hesitated to make that choice."

Thomas will graduate in May and is applying to get her MBA at OU. Woodard is on the med school path and has multiple interviews at some top programs.

The duo's leadership is impressive in the gym and the two lead cohesively to earn the respect of their teammates and guide the team to championship heights.

"Carly is a real leader when it comes to toughness," Kindler shared. "She has an attitude that not a lot have, and it rubs off on people in a good way. You have an objective and you're going to go after it and that's Carly's MO. Karrie almost has the opposite. She has this nurturing and motherly instinct that balances out Carly. She is a go getter in a more tender way. Together, they're magic."

SENIOR SALUTE

Joining Thomas and Woodard in the senior class are Emma LaPinta, Allie Stern and Olivia Trautman. All three can return for an extra year in 2023 but will make those decisions as the season progresses.

"It would be an honor to have any of the three of them return," Kindler said. "They have numerous accolades from their time here and exceptional character. How can you turn character away?"

Trautman is one of the most powerful gymnasts in program history. Though two of her seasons have been shortened by injury, Trautman hasn't missed a beat when it comes to incredible performances. She has four perfect scores on vault and floor and has never scored lower than a 9.925 on floor in three seasons.

"It's hard to put into words what she brings," Kindler said. "She is loyal to a fault. She'll be incredibly loyal to you as a friend as a teammate as a coach. She believes in people inherently and always thinks that you can do it. She can raise you up as a teammate and I think that's hugely important."

Stern's passion for the sport is evident in her work ethic and drive to be the best she can. Stern has been a staple in the vault lineup and when she sticks her landings, her facial expressions tell you all you need to know. She has earned a career high of 9.975 on the event and is coming for that perfect 10 in her final season as a Sooner.

"Allie is exceptional in the classroom and an overall Cinderella story," Kindler shared. "If you hear about her beginning the sport at an older age than most and having to go through the levels so fast, it's incredible. She had to be fearless. Her journey has been so different and because of that, her passion for the sport is immense."

LaPinta has come in to her own on floor the last two seasons and has excelled even more in the classroom. She was named the first NCAA Elite 90 Award Winner in program history along with being named the first Big 12 Winter Scholar Athlete of the Year in program history.

"Emma is clearly a mentor for our team in and out of the classroom," Kindler said. "She's a 4.0 student and has put school as a priority in her life. She's very spiritual and she's very positive and always thinking about the best thing that could happen. I think that kind of optimism is rare and super important."

THE NEXT GENERATION

The new year also means the introduction of a new generation of Sooner gymnasts. Jordan Bowers, Danae Fletcher, Caitin Kirkpatrick, Moorea Linker, Danielle Sievers, Madison Snook and Amy Wier make up the 2022 freshman class. Fletcher joined the team in January of 2021 as a redshirt freshman. The incoming Sooners will need to be ready to make immediate contributions to replace valuable losses and increase depth across the board.

"You have to learn about college gymnastics, what is it all about," Kindler said. "How can I be great 15 weeks in a row? You must believe in the tradition of your program, the history surrounding it and the people involved in it. That belief is going to be really important in this first year learning the ropes."

Bowers is a former elite gymnast with international experience. A gold-medalist in the all-around at the 2018 Pacific Rim Championships, she is anticipated to make an immediate impact in all four lineups. Linker qualified for the 2021 Nastia Liukin Cup in 2021 and has first place finishes at JO Nationals on both vault and floor. Sievers is a three-time JO National Floor Champion and Sooner fans should be excited to see the energy she brings to the competition floor.

"Moorea, Jordan and Dani have the potential to make as big of an impact on this program as anyone who has ever come through it," Kindler said. "It always comes down to what you make of your opportunity, and they are all incredibly talented, smart and successful. They are passionate women."

Kirkpatrick, Snook and Wier have all been brought on as potential beam specialists.

"All three of them have a lot of potential on beam," Kindler said. "Consistency of training is something we are focusing on in the preseason. Amy is a very strong beam worker and an incredible tumbler on beam. Madison is returning from an injury sustained in her final year of club and Caitin has been in-and-out with some minor setbacks this fall. The three of them, no doubt, have great potential.

THEY'VE GOT IT ALL

With an Oklahoma Sooner taking home the NCAA All-Around title at the last three championships, there will be big shoes to fill in the all-around this season with the departure of Webb. Kindler will turn to her younger athletes to step up and reach their full potential.

Audrey Davis who consistently competed three events will add floor in 2022 to become an all-around competitor. Katherine LeVasseur appeared in every vault and bars lineup and will add beam and floor for her sophomore season. Bowers is set to dip her toe in the four event race as well. Trautman, a five-time All-American in 2021, plans to continue to compete in the all-around.

"They just don't have a weak event," Kindler shared. "They may have one that is just a hair above the rest. When I think about Kat, I think about vault as her strongest event. I feel the same about Audrey and Jordan. Bars is both of their strong events, but I don't think of them as having any weaknesses. That always makes you a great all-arounder."

"Kat's powerful, she doesn't look powerful, but she's deceiving. She's gotten physically stronger this year and put herself in a position to be resilient from beginning to end. Audrey, Jordan and Kat are more of a beauty and grace combination and Olivia is more of a "get out of my way", watch out, and by the way I'll stick every dismount I do. You just know her landings are going to be spot on."

VAULTING TO THE TOP

Vault will take a tough hit in 2022 with the losses of 2021 National Champion Webb and All-American Schoepfer. Fortunately, the Sooners have weapons in the form of Trautman and Stern in their arsenal to keep the vault squad as one of the best in the nation.

"Vault could look really great," Kindler said. "We have five really strong 1.5s and five powerful fulls. We also have a front pike half that is working back in as well. If those athletes are all healthy, vault is deep and we can change it up."

Trautman has multiple 10s on the event and Stern has a career best of 9.975. The two seniors have both earned All-America honors on vault in multiple years. Stern will be pushed back in the lineup as a senior after spending most of the last three seasons at the front of the lineup.

Adding to the arsenal of 1.5s is returner LeVasseur and newcomers Bowers, Linker and Sievers. The Sooners could have up to six 10.0 vaults in 2022.

Audrey Lynn, who competes a unique front-entry vault, is on the come back after being sidelined with an injury in the second meet of the 2021 season. Lynn can compete both a pike front which starts at a 9.9 and a pike half which will give the Sooners one more 10.0 start value vault.

The Sooners have quality depth in the form of strong Yurchenko fulls this season. Davis competed a full most of 2021 but could do a 1.5 if needed. Sheridan Ramsey is the biggest wow of preseason after returning from a double Achilles tear in the 2021 preseason. Ramsey is slated a spot in the lineup with a strong full and remarkable awareness of her landings. Fletcher, Sullivan and Woodard also has a strong full with potential to break the lineup.

"Davis and Ramsey can bring in huge scores," Kindler said. "Davis earned a 9.9 at nationals on a stuck full and we know she can always nail it. Sheridan is so aware on her landings, its very promising. Danae, Mei, Carly have great amplitude. Landings are always a work in progress, but these three have what it takes.

FLYING HIGH

Losing just one constant routine from the lineup, the Sooners are poised to be one of the top bar teams in the nation in 2022. OU will replace Webb and the intermittent contributions of Draper, who also was a strong alternate for the Sooners. OU returns a trio of All-Americans in Trautman, Thomas and Davis.

Standing out early is Bowers with a huge Ray and great full-out dismount. Sievers and Sullivan will have the same routine composition. Sievers is a sticking machine and nails her full-out dismount on an every day basis. Sullivan has a light and floaty look to her performance. Bell Johnson worked hard in the offseason, reconstructing her routine and upping her game.

LeVasseur has changed her bar routine as well. She is no longer doing a Maloney to overshoot, but a Tkatchev. "We have not had enough depth on this event the last few years and we are easily 10 deep on bars with 10.0 routines that could all score 9.9 or above," Kindler said. "I feel super confident in that."

Davis has been upgrading her double front dismount by adding in a half-twist at the end. Adding the half-twist could give her a better chance to stick, but the sophomore had plenty of experience sticking the double front in 2021 as the Sooners' anchor.

Having Thomas back in the lineup will be a huge impact from a leadership standpoint on the event. After injury in the regional final, Thomas had surgery in the offseason but is recovering well and will bring a lot to the table in the bar lineup in 2022.

"I saw Audrey getting a 10 all last year," Kindler said. "She is the most beautiful bar swinger in the NCAA. Jordan, Ragan, Katherine and Karrie are all capable of a 10. That's our entire lineup. Its inspiring."

"We have a plethora of release moves in our lineup" Kindler continued. "There is almost no release move that isn't represented. I think that makes our team stand out from the get-go. We aren't doing the same bar routine four people in. We are taking risks and our amplitude is highlighted in these single bar releases. It should make a difference."

A BALANCING ACT

Beautiful choreography, excellent composition and a coveted pre-routine pep talk from Kindler all lend to having a strong beam lineup in each meet. The Sooners struggled the most to find a consistent and steady lineup on the event in 2021 and will look to improve the most on the event in 2022.

OU will have to replace its anchor in 2022, but Webb's routine is the only replacement needed this season with the return of Woodard and Thomas for an extra year. Woodard is an All-American on the event and the Sooners return leadoff woman Trautman, Smith, Dunn and Davis.

Replacing Webb as the anchor will be a tough task, but Woodard and Smith are both candidates to move into the important spot. Woodard is tough mentally and Smith thrives on the apparatus. Woodard has consistently been third or fourth in the lineup, so a move to sixth would be a big one. Smith has been hovering in the fifth spot. Both can easily make the transition.

"Both these athletes are great choices", Kindler said. "Either one is worthy of being in that position and is mentally tough enough to handle it."

The lead off spot is under construction. With several candidates who show daily consistency and steadiness under pressure, this decision will come down to the wire.

"Jenna is certainly consistent and has two years of experience. Audrey delivers almost identical performances time after time with a beautiful and unique beam routine that's really captivating. Olivia is a rock mentally. All three could be great."

LeVassuer has improved immensely in the offseason to gain the confidence needed to secure a potential spot in the lineup. Bowers has finesse and charisma paired with excellent difficulty.

"Kat could be a 10 any day of the week because her execution is impeccable," Kindler stated. "We've worked a lot on consistency and mindset and those are the things that will put Kat over the top. Jordan is fearless and aggressive which is exactly the mindset needed as a freshman entering this line-up.

Thomas has had to work hard through injury and surgery to return to her old form. The night before her injury in Tuscaloosa, Thomas had scored a career-high 9.975 and was poised to repeat that score or earn her first perfect 10 before falling on her dismount.

"The first time she did the dismount after her injury, she said "now I can rest easy"," Kindler shared. "We've worked really hard to dial it in technically. I asked her if she wanted to do a different dismount and she was adamant she did not."

With a routine to replace, there are many other athletes working hard to be prepared. Sullivan, Stern, Deniz and Wier are potential additions to the beam squad.

"When you close your eyes when Meilin is doing beam, you wouldn't even know someone was up there. She's that light on her feet," Kindler said. Vanessa was incredible last season when we were depending on her. She has experience and a clear determination. Allie has an opportunity as well with four years of strong skill building and a sticky dismount."

DANCING THROUGH LIFE

The Sooners have been hit the hardest on floor with the loss of three routines, including a national champion in Webb. OU will have to replace its stud leadoff in Draper along with the ever consistent Schoepfer. The Sooners will return a two-time All-American and 2019 Big 12 Champion on the event in Olivia Trautman.

Despite being held back by injury to start the 2021 season, Trautman was a sure thing the moment she stepped on the floor at the 2021 Tuscaloosa Regional. Trautman not only won the regional title on the event, but she posted no lower than a 9.925 on floor in her four performances through nationals. She continues to be the entire package of powerful tumbling, stunning leaps and energetic dance.

The Sooners also return plenty of athletes with competition experience. Stern, LaPinta, Woodard, Smith, and Bell Johnson will all be ready to step up when needed.

"Bell has improved a great deal in the offseason," Kindler shared. "I love her floor routine. It's very upbeat and fun. She's a great performer. Carly sets the tone with her Blues music and the strong message she sends through her dance. She'll definitely be a factor for us."

Sooner fans are likely to see the sophomore trio of Davis, LeVasseur and Sullivan consistently this season.

"Audrey will likely start us off this season! Her dance is elegant and her tumbling exquisite. Kat has absolutely transformed on this event. She has a strong full-in and dynamic leaps. She is the full package! package! Meilin simply has a special way of doing everything," Kindler shared. "We are thrilled to see all three thriving on this event."

Newcomers Bowers, Fletcher, Linker and Sievers will look to fill the shoes left by Draper and Webb. A three-time JO National Floor Champion, Sievers energy will captivate the audience with her fun and upbeat choreography. Bowers' will fill the void left by Webb and will bring E tumbling passes and strong leaps to the floor lineup. Fletcher has the perfect combination of tumbling and performance. Linker is perhaps the strongest tumbler with her quickness and exceptional stamina.

"We have a lot of incredible floor athletes walking in the door," Kindler said. "Dani is the first to come to mind as she's a wow in the performance category and a strong tumbler. Jordan Bowers definitely has an Anastasia feel to me. If I'm thinking of who might step into her shoes on floor, Jordan's name comes to mind. She has the same artistic quality. Danae is a very captivating dancer and has tons of charisma. Her routine has a dramatic quality that will set her apart. Moorea has always been a stunner on this event and we expect that she will be the icing on the cake for this strong group of freshmen."

KJ KINDLER

HEAD COACH - SIXTEENTH SEASON

422-55-3 RECORD AT OU

COACHED OU TO FOUR NATIONAL TITLES ('14,'16,'17, '19)

FIRST COACH TO LEAD TWO PROGRAMS TO THE SUPER SIX

THREE-TIME NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

13-TIME BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR

COACHED 171 ALL-AMERICANS

COACHED 77 BIG 12 INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONS

It has been 16 years since Oklahoma Athletic Director brought head coach K.J. Kindler to Norman to lead the Oklahoma women's gymnastics program. In the last nearly two decades, Kindler has seen her transformative vision for the Sooner program become a reality.

A three-time National Coach of the Year, Kindler led her program exactly where many said it could never go. OU's head coach has taken the Sooners to the absolute height of the NCAA gymnastics world with NCAA Championships in 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2019, 10 top-three national finishes, 11 straight regional titles, 156 All-America honors and 11 Big 12 titles.

With Kindler named the Big 12 Coach of the Year, the Sooners finished the 2021 season as the National Runner-Up, their fourth top-two finish in the last six years. Kindler led her squad to a 30-2 season, with the only losses coming at the Big 12 Championship and the NCAA Finals. The Sooners won their 11th-straight regional title, knocking off host Alabama who lost a regional at home for the first time in program history.

During the season, Kindler earned her 500th career win along with her 400th win as the head coach at Oklahoma.

Anastasia Webb had a season to remember as she became the first OU gymnast to earn CWSA Top Three Honors after being named the 2021 Honda Sport Award Winner. Webb joined an elite group of collegiate gymnasts, becoming the ninth to ever win three titles in one championship as she was crowned the all-around, vault and floor champion.

Six Sooners combined for a nation-best 15 All-America honors, including Webb's five first-team accolades. Webb was the only gymnast in the country to earn first-team nods on every event and the all-around. Olivia Trautman also brought home five All-America honors with a first team nod in the all-around and second-team honors on all four events.
Webb was crowned the Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, while Karrie Thomas was named the Big 12 Event Specialist of the Year.

The 2020 season was shortened due to the outbreak of COVID-19. In the time the Sooners had to compete, Kindler's squad was ranked No. 1 for the entire season and posted the nation's top score with a 198.450. The Sooners were undefeated at 16-0 before the season was canceled.

Five Sooners combined for a nation-best 14 All-America honors, including Maggie Nichols' five first-team honors. Nichols and Ragan Smith brought home a pair of Big 12 Conference Awards, being named the Gymnast and Newcomer of the Year, respectively.

The 2019 season was one for the record books as the Sooners finished with a 32-0 record and a fourth national championship. Just the second undefeated season in program history, Kindler's squad held the No.1 ranking all season en route to posting a 198.3375 at the NCAA Championships to end their season with yet another national title.

Eight gymnasts combined for 17 All-America honors including Jade Degouveia, Brenna Dowell, Nicole Lehrmann, Maggie Nichols, Karrie Thomas, Olivia Trautman, Anastasia Webb and Carly Woodard. Dowell and Nichols were national champions once again as Dowell earned the floor title and Nichols defended her all-around crown while also taking home a share of the vault title. Nichols was just the sixth gymnast in NCAA history to earn back-to-back all-around titles and became the OU record older for career individual titles with six. Dowell, Degouveia and Trautman swept the Big 12 Conference Awards, being named the Gymnast, Event Specialist and Freshman of the Year, respectively. It marked the third-straight year that OU swept the yearly awards and fifth time overall.

The Sooners won their eighth-straight Big 12 title and 10th straight regional title while posting a third consecutive season with an RQS over 198. OU notched eight scores of 198 or better in 2019, including posting the highest away score in NCAA history with a 198.475 at the Athens Regional.

In 2018, the Sooners were the No. 1 team in the nation the entire season, culminating in a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships. The Sooners earned their seventh-straight Big 12 title and ninth straight regional title along the way to setting a program and NCAA record of 10 scores of 198 or better during a season. The Sooners finished the season with three-consecutive scores of 198 or better, a feat they achieved three times throughout the season.

Eight gymnasts combined for 16 All-America honors, including Stefani Catour, Jade Degouveia, Brenna Dowell, AJ Jackson, Nicole Lehrmann, Maggie Nichols, Bre Showers and Anastasia Webb. Dowell and Nichols became individual national champions, with Dowell earning the vault title and Nichols taking home the all-around, bars and floor titles. Additionally, the Sooners added 10 regular season All-America accolades from the NACGC/W. Nichols became a five-time All-American, joining Chayse Capps (2016) and Kelly Garrison (1988) as the only Sooners to accomplish the feat.

In 2017, the Sooners won their second straight and third overall national title with a 198.3875, the highest ever score by any team at the NCAA Championships. OU finished the year with a perfect 33-0 overall record, the first undefeated season in program history. Five gymnastics combined for 12 All-America honors, including Chayse Capps, Stefani Catour, AJ Jackson, Nicole Lehrmann and Maggie Nichols, while Lehrmann and Nichols became individual national champions on the bars. Additionally, OU paced the nation with 14 regular season All-America accolades from the NACGC/W.

Kindler earned Co-Big 12 Coach of the Year and South Central Region Coach of the Year honors in a season that saw her squad win the conference for a sixth straight season and advance to national meet behind an eighth straight regional win.

In 2016, the Sooners snagged their second national title in program history and first outright win, posting a 197.675 during the Super Six in Fort Worth, Texas.

The meet capped a season in which the Sooners posted a 38-1-0 overall record, with their lone loss coming in their season opener. Nine Sooners earned a program-record 18 All-America honors. Leading the way was junior Capps, who was named a five-time All-American.

The Sooners continued their recent postseason dominance in 2016, securing an unprecedented fifth straight Big 12 title and a seventh consecutive regional crown, doing so at the NCAA Iowa City Regional. In total, seven Sooners earned a combined 10 regular season All-America accolades from the NACGC/W.

Kindler's 2015 Sooners were impressively dominant throughout the season, earning a perfect 14-0 record during the regular season for the nation's only undefeated regular season. The Sooners also spent the entirety of the regular season ranked No. 1 nationally, earning the top spot in the rankings for an impressive 12 straight weeks. OU captured its fourth consecutive Big 12 Championship (a league first), the NCAA Norman Regional title and 11 regular season All-America honors.

Kindler led her Sooners to a strong finish at the NCAA Championships in Fort Worth as the team achieved its fifth Super Six appearance since 2010, taking third place overall. Kindler's OU squad earned a then-program-record and nation-leading 13 All-America honors and every Sooner competing in event finals finished in the top 10 nationally on their individual events.

In recognition of Oklahoma's extraordinary and dominant season, NCAA gymnastics coaches voted Kindler the 2015 National Coach of the Year. Kindler has been named Coach of the Year three times in her career (2005, 2010, 2015), including two times as head coach at Oklahoma.

A visionary with the heart and willpower to accomplish what few thought was possible, Kindler made Oklahoma only the sixth team in NCAA history to win a women's gymnastics championship in the 2014 season. Kindler's 2014 Sooners were Big 12 champions, NCAA Minneapolis Regional Champions and earned nine NCAA All-America awards. She also coached three gymnasts to top-two finishes at the NCAA Championships, including balance beam champion Taylor Spears. Spears became OU's first individual national champion in 26 years and was joined by Maile'ana Kanewa (floor exercise) and Haley Scaman (floor exercise) in earning top-two NCAA finishes.

The 2014 Sooners won their title in record-breaking fashion at the 2014 NCAA Championships, posting a meet-record 198.175 to tie Florida atop the podium. OU earned program-record scores at an NCAA Championship meet on three out of four events.
In 2013, Kindler led OU to the program's third NCAA Super Six team finals appearance. The squad earned seven All-America honors en route to a second-place team effort overall, tying for the highest finish in program history. The performance marked OU's third top-three finish in the last four seasons under Kindler.

Kindler's 2010 team also achieved a second-place finish in OU's first-ever Super Six appearance. With the performance, Kindler became the first head coach in NCAA history to lead two separate programs to the Super Six (Iowa State--2006; Oklahoma--2010, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017).

The 2013 season marked one of the finest in Oklahoma program history. OU spent the entirety of the season ranked in the top three nationally, including two weeks at No. 1. The primary beam coach, Kindler led the beam squad to a No. 1 ranking for 11 consecutive weeks during the regular season. OU defeated nine top-25 teams, including four top-10 squads, en route to the program's 11th conference title and an NCAA Regional championship.

The Sooners' regular season efforts were recognized with a nation-best 11 NACGC/W All-America awards. Kindler's leadership throughout the team's stellar season earned her Coach of the Year honors from the Big 12 and the South Central Region.

Kindler's OU squad was marked by excellence at both the team and individual levels in 2013. The team posted a 197.375 at the NCAA Championships to finish as the nation's runner-up, tying for the highest finish in Sooner history. OU scored a 197.000 or better at 13 meets in 2013, tying an NCAA record for most such meets in a single season.
In 2012, Kindler led the Sooners to team titles at the Big 12 Championship and the NCAA Champaign Regional. Kinder was named conference coach of the year and OU captured seven All-America awards and a seventh-place finish in the country.

Kindler was named the South Central Regional Head Coach of the Year in 2011 after guiding OU to its third undefeated regular season in four years. A program-best 11 OU gymnasts were named All-Americans as the Sooners went on to win an NCAA Regional title and finish third in the nation.

On Jan. 23, 2011, Kindler collected her 100th win with the OU program as the Sooners defeated TWU, 196.175-193.050. OU is a combined 179-48-2 in seven seasons under Kindler; she has helped the program to its four best win percentages in program history in the last four seasons.

In 2010, the National Coach of the Year, Regional Coach of the Year and Big 12 Coach of the Year led Oklahoma to a national runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships with seven All-Americans, including Big 12 Sportswoman of the Year Hollie Vise. Vise was an All-American on bars, beam and floor and finished as the national runner-up on bars and floor.

Under the direction of Kindler, the Sooners closed 2010 with a final record of 29-3. The win total broke the previous program best of 26 that was set in 1989 under Becky Switzer.

Kindler guided the Sooners to the only undefeated regular season in the NCAA in 2010 (22-0) en route to postseason titles at the Big 12 Championship and NCAA University Park Regional. OU was ranked first or second in every regular season poll in 2010, as the Sooners were the only squad in the country to score above a 196.000 in every meet. Oklahoma also picked up its first win over a No. 1 opponent in program history in 2010 with a 197.950-197.275 victory over top-ranked Alabama on March 5. OU eclipsed its previous program best (197.725) by 0.225 in the win, which was the highest score in the NCAA that season.

Kindler's squad continued its Big 12 dominance, winning its third straight Big 12 title with a team score of 197.175, the highest score by a conference champion since 2001. OU swept all four team event titles and won at least a share of all four individual event titles.
The Sooners won their second-straight Big 12 title in 2009, while posting individual event titles on bars and beam at the conference championship. Megan Ferguson earned All-America status with her stellar performance on beam as the Sooners won eight beam titles in 2009.

In 2008, Kindler guided Kiara Redmond as the senior capped off her illustrious career with four additional All-America honors, moving her career total to nine - the highest tally of any gymnast in program history. The 2008 campaign started with 21 consecutive victories, including all 18 regular season meetings, as OU finished the regular season as the only undefeated team in the country.

Oklahoma produced a conference-leading nine spots on the 2008 regular season All-Big 12 Team.

OU recorded only two scores lower than 9.8 in the final three events of the 2008 conference championship as the Sooners clinched at least a share of all four individual event titles - marking just the third time in Big 12 history that a school clinched at least a share of all four apparatus wins.

Named head coach of the Sooners in the summer of 2006, Kindler quickly positioned the OU squad among the nation's elite in her first season in Norman in 2007. That year, the Sooners rattled off a streak of 12 consecutive victories, nine of which came on the road, including an upset of then-No. 6 Nebraska in Lincoln, a feat no OU team had accomplished since 1991.

Oklahoma finished second at the Big 12 Championships before heading to the NCAA Central Regional, taking second place before finishing eighth at the NCAA Championships, the highest finish up to that point in program history.

"We are dedicated to filling our staff with the best and brightest minds in coaching," said OU Athletics Director Joe Castiglione upon Kindler's hiring. "K.J. Kindler brings a reputation of great achievement in all aspects of leading a program." "She impressed us not only with her accomplishment to this point, but with her lofty goals for the future and her plan for reaching those goals. We are thrilled to work with K.J. and her staff as we pursue championships."

Prior to her hiring at OU, Kindler spent six seasons as the head coach at Iowa State. In her final season in Ames in 2006, Kindler led Iowa State to its third trip to the NCAA Championships and its first appearance in the Super Six team finals.
The 24-10 Cyclones produced three All-Americans for a second-consecutive season while posting an undefeated mark at home, a 10-1 dual record and an 8-1 standard in duals against ranked opponents. The team also snapped Nebraska's 60-meet home winning streak.

The 2006 squad won its first Big 12 Championship since 2000, and three Cyclone gymnasts earned either an outright or share of an individual title at the meet. During six seasons at ISU from 2001-06, Kindler coached nine regional event champions, seven NCAA individual championship qualifiers and 13 Big 12 champions.

Kindler, an Iowa State graduate, joined the Cyclone staff as an assistant coach in 1992. As an ISU gymnast, Kindler was a three-time MVP for the Cyclones and runner-up in the all-around at the 1992 Big Eight Championships. She was the school's first individual NCAA Regional qualifier and competed three times in the postseason meet.

Kindler hails from Lake Elmo, Minn., and trained under Mary Jane Olsen at Hamline University in St. Paul. In high school, she moved to Connecticut and trained under Frank and Laurie DeFrancesco at Arena Academy in Stamford and Walter Hawkes at Wilton High School. In Connecticut, she won multiple conference and state titles.

The eldest of five siblings, Kindler hails from a gymnastics family. One sister, Lori, competed at the University of Minnesota. She and her husband own and operate Flips Gymnastics in the Twin Cities area. Kindler's nieces, Emma and Lucy Kindler, enjoy recreational gymnastics.

Kindler is married to OU assistant coach Lou Ball. The couple has two daughters, Maggie and Adelade.

Associate head coach Lou Ball enters his 16th season with Oklahoma women's gymnastics in 2021 as the primary coach on vault and co-coach on uneven bars.

The 2010 and 2020 National Assistant Coach of the Year along with fellow OU assistant coach Tom Haley, Ball has aided OU to nine top-three finishes at the NCAA Championships in 2010, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019, including Oklahoma's first-ever NCAA championship effort in 2014 and second, third and fourth title runs in 2016, 2017 and 2018 respectively. The Sooners also notched NCAA runner-up finishes in 2010, 2013 and 2018 and have finished no lower than third in the Super Six since their first appearance in 2010.

Ball has been named Region Assistant Coach of the Year eight times in his career and has helped OU to 11 Big 12 Championships and 10 straight NCAA Regional titles.

OU has garnered 61 All-America honors on bars and vault under Ball's leadership, including 2021 Co-Vault National Champion Anastasia Webb, 2017 Co-Bars National Champions, Nicole Lehrmann and Maggie Nichols, 2018 Co-Vault National Champion Brenna Dowell, 2018 Co-Bars National Champion Nichols and 2019 Co-Vault National Champion Nichols. Ball also coached Haley Scaman to a prolific vaulting career at Oklahoma, including top-five NCAA individual finishes in 2014 (third) and 2015 (third). Ball's efforts have also resulted in 13 Big 12 champions on bars and 11 on vault for the Sooners.

In 2021, Ball was instrumental in leading Anastasia Webb to the vault national title. Webb (vault, bars), Allie Stern (vault), Audrey Davis (bars) and Olivia Trautman (vault, bars) all earned All-America honors under ball in 2021. The vault and bar squads earned 27 team event titles and 31 individual event titles. Webb, Trautman and Evy Schoepfer all earned perfect scores on vault in 2021. Davis upgraded her vault from a Yurchenko full to a 1.5 in the middle of the season, earning a career-high 9.95 on her upgraded vault.

In a shortened 2020 season due to COVID-19, Ball led the Sooners to 10 team titles vault and bars. The squad also combined for 25 individual event titles on vault and bars with a pair of gymnasts combining for seven perfect 10s – six on vault and one on bars. Ball helped Maggie Nichols and Anastasia Webb to a No. 1 and No. 2 ranking, respectively, on vault.

Degouveia (vault), Nichols (vault, bars), Allie Stern (vault) and Anastasia Webb (vault) all earned WCGA All-America honors under Ball in 2020. As a team, the Sooners finished the year ranked No. 1 on vault and bars.

The 2019 Sooners picked up seven All-America accolades on vault and bars, led by the national championship performance from Nichols on vault. Nichols also received honors on bars, while Dowell (vault), Lehrmann (vault, bars), Thomas (bars) and Webb (bars) were recognized.

The team captured a total of 17 vault titles and 16 bar titles under Ball's leadership, including a program-record 49.725 on bars against Florida. The Sooners became the first team since the devaluation of the Yurchenko full to field a lineup of six 10.0 start value vaults, securing a season-best 49.625 with six Yurchenko 1.5s.

Ball helped Nichols to a Big 12 title on bars. Nichols and Lehrman each recorded a perfect 10 on bars, while Nichols and Dowell scored perfect 10s on vault under Ball's leadership.

The 2018 Sooners picked up seven All-America accolades on vault and bars, led by the national championship performances from Dowell and Nichols on vault and bars, respectively. Nichols also received honors on vault, while Stefani Catour (bars), Jade Degouveia (vault), Nicole Lehrmann (bars), and Bre Showers (vault) were recognized.

The team captured a total of 14 titles on vault and bars under Ball's leadership, including a program-record 49.725 on bars at the Big 12 Championships. The Sooners counted five scores of 9.9 or better, including four scores of 9.95 or better, highlighted by a 9.975 from Lehrmann to earn the Big 12 Championship. Nichols turned in a 10.0 on the bars at the NCAA Championships, just the seventh gymnast in NCAA history to do so.
The 2017 Sooners picked up six All-America accolades on vault and bars, led by the national-championship performances from Lehrmann and Nichols on the bars. Nichols also received honors on vault, while Capps (vault), Jackson (vault) and Catour (bars) were recognized.

The team captured a total of 14 titles on vault and 15 on bars under Ball's leadership and exploded for a program-record 49.700 on bars at TWU. The event was highlighted by a pair of perfect 10.0s from Lehrmann and senior

McKenzie Wofford, who became the first Sooners to post perfect marks on the same event in the same meet. Nichols also posted a 10.0 on bars in 2017 and turned in two perfect scores on vault in her freshman campaign.
In 2016, Ball coached four All-Americans on both vault and bars as he helped lead the Sooners to their second NCAA title. Earning first-team accolades on vault were Keeley Kmieciak, Hunter Price and Haley Scaman, while Capps snagged second-team honors. Capps was also a first-team honoree on bars along with Wofford and Lehrmann, and AJ Jackson received second-team recognition.

Ball's gymnasts secured 12 team titles on vault and 16 on bars, highlighted by 10 individual bars crowns for Wofford. The Sooners twice set the then-program-best mark on bars (49.675) in 2016, doing so against Arizona and at the Big 12 Championship, fueled by Kmieciak's perfect 10 on the apparatus, just the second in the history of the conference meet. Ball coached three Big 12 Champions (Kmieciak and Jackson on vault, Kmieciak on bars) and two NCAA Iowa City Regional Champions (Capps on vault, Wofford on bars).
Ball's coaching efforts led Oklahoma to strong performances throughout the 2015 season on both vault and uneven bars. OU captured 11 team titles on vault and 13 on bars while totaling 32 individual event titles combined on the two events.

On vault, Ball guided an impressive four Sooners to All-America accolades, including first-team honors for Scaman and Jackson. Scaman posted a 10.0 on vault under Ball's coaching during the regular season and finished third nationally on the event at NCAA event finals. Ball also guided Jackson to the Big 12 and NCAA Norman Regional individual titles on vault.
Several Sooners also shone on uneven bars under Ball's guidance in 2015, including first-team All-Americans Brenna Dowell, Kmieciak and Wofford. Wofford had a dominant season, earning eight individual titles while finishing fourth nationally on bars at NCAA event finals. Dowell earned the nation's first 10.0 on bars in January and Kmieciak enjoyed a stellar championship showing on the event as well. Ball also led Rebecca Clark to a share of the Big 12 title on uneven bars.

Ball helped lead Oklahoma to the best season in program history in 2014, coaching the Sooners to a first NCAA title, an NCAA Regional championship and a Big 12 title. Ball also led a resurgence of the Oklahoma vaulting corps in 2014. His Sooners averaged a program-best 49.475 over the course of the season on the event, winning 12 event titles throughout the season. OU notched five of the top six scores all-time for an Oklahoma team, including a program-record 49.700 at the NCAA Minneapolis Regional in April. Two of Ball's gymnasts were named All-Americans on the event (Maile'ana Kanewa and Haley Scaman), and Scaman posted OU's first perfect 10.0 on the event since 2010 in March.

On uneven bars, Ball and Haley coached senior Taylor Spears to first-team All-America honors at NCAAs for her performance. Ball and Haley's gymnasts won 11 total uneven bars titles throughout the season.

In 2013, Ball helped coach OU to a national runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships, tying for what was then the best finish in program history. The Sooners won a Big 12 championship and took top honors at the NCAA Norman Regional en route to their record-setting performance.
Ball's vault squad captured a total of 13 individual event titles on the season. Under Ball's tutelage, freshman Maile'ana Kanewa overcame preseason surgery to earn top honors on vault three times, including the Big 12 vault championship. Ball also coached Madison Mooring to first-team All-America honors and an appearance in the NCAA individual finals on the event.
Ball and Haley teamed up to coach three Sooner gymnasts to All-America honors on bars. Erica Brewer and Rebecca Clark both earned first-team All-America honors and top-10 NCAA finishes on the event, while Brie Olson was a second-team All-American. Ball and Haley's gymnasts captured 18 titles on bars throughout the season.

In 2012, Ball helped coach OU to a Big 12 championship, regional championship and seventh-place national finish, marking Oklahoma's ninth-straight trip to the NCAAs.

Oklahoma's 2011 squad earned its third undefeated regular season in four years while 11 gymnasts captured All-America honors. Ball again earned coach of the year honors at the regional level as he aided OU to the NCAA Norman Regional title and a third-place performance at the NCAA Championships.
In 2010, OU finished in a program-best second place after making its first-ever NCAA Super Six team finals appearance. The Sooners also went undefeated in the regular season, beat No. 1 Alabama and eight other top-25 opponents, claimed their third-straight Big 12 Championship and won the 2010 NCAA University Park Regional title.
OU won 12 of 13 team event titles on bars under the direction of Haley and Ball, while Hollie Vise earned All-America distinction and was NCAA Runner-Up on the apparatus. The Sooners didn't count a fall on the apparatus in 2010 and posted only two team scores below 49.000.

Ball's vault squad posted a team score of 49.000 or higher in 14 of 15 competitions in 2010. OU won the team vault title 11 times in 2010, including the Big 12 vault title and NCAA University Park Regional vault title.
Under Ball's leadership, an OU gymnast won the individual vault title 11 times, including the Big 12 vault title (shared by Jackie Flanery, Brie Olson and Natalie Ratcliff). Ball also helped Sara Stone achieve the program's first perfect score since 2008 when Stone posted a 10.0 on vault at Michigan State.
In 2009, OU closed the year with top-10 team rankings on both vault and bars and won a combined 14 team titles on the two events. Every member of the 2009 Oklahoma vault lineup posted a season high of at least 9.85, including three with scores higher than 9.9.

Ball's expertise on the two events was evident in 2008 as Oklahoma closed the season ranked first in the Big 12 and 10th in the country on both apparatuses. OU won 11 bars titles and notched 10 wins on vault during the regular season, capped off by 23 individual event titles on the two events alone.

In his first season at OU in 2007, Ball also guided Brittney Koncak-Schumann to All-America status on vault.
Prior to joining the Oklahoma program, Ball spent 11 years as administrative assistant coach at Iowa State where he was named the 2005 NACGCW National Co-Assistant Coach of the Year. He was also honored as an NCAA Regional Assistant Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2002.

At Iowa State, Ball served as the primary coach on vault and uneven bars. During his tenure in Ames, the Cyclones rewrote the school record books on both events and six of his gymnasts won Big 12 titles on bars.
Ball also coached a two-time regional bars co-champion and a pair of two-time All-Americans on vault.

While at Iowa State, Ball was a co-owner and head coach at the Cardinal Gymnastics Academy where he qualified five gymnasts to the national TOPS team and camp held annually at USA gymnastics coach Bela Karolyi's ranch. Ball and K.J. Kindler have had five of their club gymnasts go on to compete at the NCAA level.

In addition, Ball coached individuals to Level 10 USA Nationals for eight consecutive years, and his Level 8, 9 and 10 teams all captured Iowa state titles. In 1999 and 2001 Ball was named Iowa USA Gymnastics Coach of the Year.

Prior to his time in Iowa, Ball served as head coach at Cahoy's Gymnastics School in Omaha, Neb., for three years where he led several individuals to berths at USA Nationals.

As an athlete, Ball competed as a vault and floor exercise specialist at the University of Nebraska from 1990-93. He was an NCAA vault finalist in 1992 and helped the Cornhuskers to a runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships in 1992 and 1993.

Ball also earned All-Big Eight honors on vault in 1992 and 1993. Ball transferred to Nebraska in 1990 after spending two seasons as a member of the gymnastics team at Michigan.

Ball earned a bachelor's degree in liberal studies from Iowa State in 1999. He is married to OU head coach K.J. Kindler and the couple lives in Norman with their two daughters, Maggie and Adelade.

Tom Haley enters his 16th year as an associate head coach for the Oklahoma women's gymnastics team in 2021 after 15 seasons of excellence with the Sooners since his arrival in 2007.

The co-coach on bars and primary coach on floor, Haley was the 2010 and 2020 National Assistant Coach of the Year with fellow OU assistant Lou Ball. Haley also shared the 2010, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2017 awards for South Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year with Ball, giving him seven career Region Coach of the Year honors.

In 2021, Haley helped lead Anastasia Webb to an individual national title on floor, his third gymnast to earn a floor title at Oklahoma. Four Sooners combined for six All-America honors on both bars and floor, while the squads combined for 29 individual event titles on the events. As a team, Haley's groups earned 27 team event titles. Webb earned a perfect score on bars at the Tuscaloosa Regional.

In a shortened 2020 season due to COVID-19, Haley led the Sooners to 10 team titles on bars and floor. The squad also combined for 27 individual event titles on bars and floor, with three gymnasts ranked in the top 10 in the nation. Maggie Nichols finished the year at No. 2, while Jade Degouveia and Ragan Smith were tied at No. 7.

Degouveia (bars), Nichols (bars, floor), Smith (bars) and Anastasia Webb (floor) all earned WCGA All-America honors under Haley in 2020. Nichols secured a perfect 10 on bars, while Degouveia earned a career-best 9.975 in her first ever season of competition on the event. As a team, the Sooners finished the year ranked No. 1 on bars and No. 3 on floor.

Haley led the Sooners to 16 team titles on bars and 13 on floor in 2019. The squad also combined for 42 individual event titles on bars and floor, including a national champion as Brenna Dowell took home a share of the 2019 floor title.

Jade Degouveia (floor), Dowell (floor), Nicole Lehrmann (bars), Maggie Nichols (bars, floor), Karrie Thomas (bars), Olivia Trautman (floor) and Anastasia Webb (bars, floor) all earned All-America honors under Haley.

OU set program records on bars and floor in 2019, with a 49.275 on bars and a 49.825 on floor against Florida. Lehrmann and Nichols each recorded a perfect 10 on bars during the season, while Trautman earned a perfect 10 on floor.

Haley led his gymnasts to another incredible season in 2018. With 14 event titles on bars and 12 on floor, the squad combined for 36 individual event titles on bars and floor. Stefani Catour (bars), Brenna Dowell (floor), AJ Jackson (floor), Nicole Lehrmann (bars), Maggie Nichols (bars, floor) and Anastasia Webb (floor) all earned All-America honors under Haley as Nichols went on to become the Co-Floor National Champion.

OU set a program-record 49.725 on bars at the Big 12 Championships. The Sooners counted five scores of 9.9 or better, including four scores of 9.95 or better, highlighted by a 9.975 from Lehrmann to earn the Big 12 Championship. Nichols turned in a 10.0 on the bars at the NCAA Championships, just the seventh gymnast in NCAA history to do so.
Haley's gymnasts enjoyed another standout season in 2017. The squad tallied 15 event titles on floor and 13 on floor. Maggie Nichols (bars, floor), AJ Jackson (floor), Stefani Catour (bars) and Nicole Lehrmann (bars) all earned All-America honors under Haley's guidance as Nichols and Lehrmann became Co-Bars National Champions.
OU exploded for a then program-record 49.700 on bars at TWU. The event was highlighted by a pair of perfect 10.0s from Lehrmann and senior McKenzie Wofford, who became the first Sooners to post perfect marks on the same event in the same meet.

Additionally, Brenna Dowell (bars), Nichols (bars), Wofford (bars) and Jackson (floor) all snagged individual Big 12 titles, while Nichols earned the floor title at the NCAA Seattle Regional.

Haley's 2016 Sooners earned 13 team event titles on floor. Four Sooners secured All-America status on the event, including Chayse Capps (first team), Jackson (first team), Keeley Kmieciak (first team) and Haley Scaman (second team). On bars, the Sooners soared to 16 team titles in 2016, twice setting the then-program record on the event with a score of 49.675 against Arizona and at the Big 12 Championship. In the conference meet, Kmieciak tallied the first perfect 10 of her career on bars and just the second in the history of the conference meet on the event. Capps was also a first-team honoree on bars along with McKenzie Wofford and Nicole Lehrmann, and Jackson received second-team recognition. Haley coached two Big 12 Champions (Kmieciak on bars, Scaman on floor) and two NCAA Iowa City Regional Champions (Wofford on bars, Jackson on floor).

In 2015, Haley aided the Sooners to 12 team event titles on floor in 2015 in addition to 17 individual titles. Haley's work with Scaman led the junior to a team-best nine individual titles throughout the season and her third perfect 10.0 score on the event. Dowell also thrived under Haley's guidance, finishing as NCAA runner-up on floor with a 9.95 in event finals. Both Dowell and Scaman were first-team All-Americans in the event, while Dowell was the Big 12 floor champion and Scaman was NCAA Norman Regional floor champion.

Haley's gymnasts were a force on uneven bars as well, capturing 13 team event titles and 14 individual titles throughout the season. Three gymnasts earned first-team All-America accolades under Haley and Ball and Dowell, Kmieciak and Wofford all finished in the top 10 nationally on the event. Wofford spent several weeks during the regular season ranked No. 1 nationally on bars and capped her season with a fourth-place NCAA finish in event finals.

Haley helped lead Oklahoma to the best season in program history in 2014, coaching the Sooners to a first NCAA title, an NCAA Regional championship and a Big 12 title. Haley coached five Sooner gymnasts to All-America honors in 2014. Lara Albright, Maile'ana Kanewa and Haley Scaman were all first-team All-Americans on floor exercise, while Taylor Spear garnered first-team honors on bars. True freshman Kara Lovan also captured second-team accolades on floor. Kanewa and Scaman each posted 9.95 performances at NCAA Event Finals to tie as national runners-up on the event.

Overall, Haley's gymnasts earned 12 event titles on floor and 11 on uneven bars throughout the season. Under Haley's leadership, Scaman became the first Sooner in program history to post multiple 10.0s in a single season, a career and on an individual event. Scaman earned two 10.0s on floor exercise alone during the season.

Haley guided four OU gymnasts to All-America honors in 2013. Haley and Ball aided Erica Brewer and Rebecca Clark to first-team awards and top-10 NCAA finishes, while Taylor Spears earned second-team accolades. Brie Olson also captured second-team All-America honors on floor under Haley's tutelage. Overall, the Sooners earned 18 individual titles on bars and 13 on floor in 2013.

Haley's coaching was instrumental in Oklahoma's record-setting 2013 campaign, which saw the Sooners finish as runners-up at the NCAA Championships after claiming Big 12 and NCAA Norman Regional titles. While coaching at OU, Haley has guided 11 Sooner All-Americans on bars and eight on floor. An additional six Oklahoma gymnasts have earned Big 12 titles on floor and seven on bars under Haley's direction. Haley's work with the 2012 squad resulted in three All-America honors for the Sooners, who finished seventh at the NCAA Championships. The team also snagged Big 12 and NCAA Champaign Regional titles.

Haley helped the Sooners to back-to-back Super Six appearances and their second consecutive top-three finish in 2011. OU completed its third undefeated regular season in four years in 2011, maintaining the country's longest regular season win streak.

Ball and Haley also coached three OU gymnasts to All-America honors on bars, including two first-teamers. OU won a total of 11 team bar titles and 12 individual bar titles.
In 2010, OU finished in a program-best second place after making its first-ever NCAA Super Six team finals appearance. The Sooners also went undefeated in the regular season, beat No. 1 Alabama and eight other top-25 opponents, claimed their third-straight Big 12 Championship and won the 2010 NCAA University Park Regional title. After the Sooners' stellar 2010 season, Haley was named National Assistant Coach of the Year along with fellow OU assistant coach Lou Ball. The two also shared 2010 Regional Assistant Coach of the Year honors.

Haley helped the Sooners shine on floor in 2010, as OU scored a 49.000 or higher on the apparatus in every competition. Under Haley's tutelage, senior Hollie Vise finished in second place on floor at the NCAA Individual Event Finals and earned All-American honors on the apparatus in her first season of competition on the event
Vise and fellow senior Jackie Flanery shared the Big 12 title on floor, while Flanery entered NCAA Championships ranked No. 1 in the country on the apparatus.

In 2009, Haley guided the Sooners to seven floor titles, including the conference championship and NCAA Northeast Regional championship.

Haley and Ball's bar squad also captured six team titles in 2009 while Megan Ferguson and Ashley Jackson shared the Big 12 bar title.
In 2008, Haley's floor team posted 13 team event titles, while the bars lineup took home 10 event titles. The Sooners ranked first in the conference and sixth in the country on floor in 2008, posting a season regional qualifying score (RQS) of 49.315. Haley guided Kiara Redmond to All-America honors on floor while Redmond and Brittney Koncak-Schumann earned floor titles at the Big 12 Championship. Redmond went on to post a 9.925 and take top honors on floor at the 2008 NCAA South Central Regional.

Prior to his hiring at OU, Haley coached for three seasons at the University of Kentucky where he was named the 2006 NACGC/W Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year. Before entering collegiate coaching at Kentucky, Haley, a native of San Antonio, Texas, worked as one of the top club coaches in the Southeast.

From 2002-2003, he was the team coach for Level 4 Elite at the Gwinnett Gymnastics Center near Atlanta, Ga. At GGC, he coached two Region 8 Level 10 all-around champions, as well as a 2003 junior international elite qualifying gymnast.

Haley served as the head coach and program director of the `Bama Bounders club program at the University of Alabama from 1996-02. With the `Bama Bounders, Haley coached a Level 10 uneven bars national champion, a Level 10 Junior Olympic National Team member and had 10 of his gymnasts receive full athletic scholarships to NCAA Division I programs.

He also served as a volunteer assistant coach for the Alabama women's gymnastics team in 2000 and 2001.

Haley married his wife, Kelli More, in May 2009. They have a son, Levi, and two daughters, Nina and Kaia.

JENN RICHARDSON

ATHLETIC TRAINER - 16th SEASON

An integral part of the Oklahoma women's gymnastics program, Jennifer Richardson enters her 16th season as an athletic trainer at OU in 2022. Richardson is responsible for the daily care, treatment, rehab and prevention of injuries for the men's and women's gymnastics programs.

Richardson earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training from West Virginia University and obtained a master of arts degree in health studies/sports medicine health care from the University of Alabama, where she served as the athletic trainer for the softball team.

The Hamburg, N.Y., native has also served as the athletic trainer for the women's soccer and women's basketball teams at St. Mary's College of California. She worked with the 2005 and 2006 national championship women's gymnastics teams at the University of Georgia prior to her arrival at Oklahoma.

ASHLEY KERR

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH - FIFTH SEASON

Ashley Kerr enters her fifth season as the volunteer assistant coach for the women's gymnastics team. Kerr competed for the Florida Gators from 2007-2010, and was a four-time member of the NCAA Scholastic All-American team, as well as the SEC Academic Honor Roll. She served as the president of UF's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and was awarded the 2010 Outstanding Leadership Award by the UF Alumni Association.

Upon graduation, Kerr served as the volunteer student manager for the 2011 season, before serving as the team manager from 2011-2013. Most recently, Kerr was the Assistant to the Head Coach at Florida, supporting multiple aspects of the program. Kerr worked with the coaching staff on all on-campus recruiting visits, coordinated the team social media activity, and helped with community outreach. She helped plan and organize team travel and assisted the head coach at all team competitions, while working with the marketing department on promotional plans to increase fan interest and attendance. Additionally, she assisted with the planning and execution of summer camps.

In her time at Florida, Kerr worked with three national champion teams as the Gators won three straight between 2013-15. Kerr was a part of ten Super Six teams and five SEC Championship teams during her time as both a gymnast and a staff member.

Kerr graduated in 2010 with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, with an emphasis in marketing and minors in mass communication and leadership. She attended grad school at UF, where she earned a Master of Science in Sports Management and a Master of Arts in Telecommunications. Kerr is married to Oklahoma City Thunder Head Coach Mark Daigneault.

MAGGIE NICHOLS

STUDENT COACH - SECOND SEASON

Maggie Nichols is the most decorated gymnast in Oklahoma history and is now in her second season as a student coach for the Sooners. Nichols was a four-year member of the gymnastics team from 2017-2020. The Little Canada, Minn., native was the 2020 AAI Award Winner, 2019 Honda Sport Award Winner and 2019 NCAA Inspiration Award Winner.

Nichols was a two-time Big 12 Gymnast of the Year and two-time Big 12 Female Athlete of the Year. She won six individual national titles, including back-to-back all-around titles in 2018 and 2019. She was a two-time NCAA Team Champion and three-time Big 12 Team Champion. She compiled 30 All-America honors, the most in program history. She notched 22 perfect scores, the fourth most in NCAA history and was the first freshman to complete a "Gym Slam" with a perfect 10 on all four events.

Nichols was a 17-time All-Big 12 selection and owns over 160 career event titles. She was a six-time Big 12 individual champion. Nichols was a four-time Honda Sport Award Finalist. In her career, she was a three-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree and a four-time WCGA Scholastic All-American.

Nichols graduated in May 2020 with a degree in communications and a minor in business. She is currently pursuing a master's degree in Adult and Higher Education - Intercollegiate Athletics Administration.

MELISSA SIMMONS

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS - THIRD SEASON

Melissa Simmons is in her second season as the director of operations for the gymnastics program. Simmons came to OU from N.C. State where she served as the director of operations for the wrestling program from 2014-2019.

Simmons wrestled at Oklahoma City University during her collegiate career. She helped OCU capture three of its four team national championships and three of its five NWCA National Duals titles from 2009-11. She went 73-18 with 42 falls. She became the 2008 72-kilogram national champion, then the 2010 82-kilo national runner-up. After finishing third place at 158 pounds as a junior, Simmons competed on the U.S. World Team.

Originally from Ridgefield, Wash., Simmons gained seven national titles and all-American honors competing as a youth. She trained at the U.S. Olympic Education Center prior to her collegiate career.

Simmons graduated from Oklahoma City University in 2010 with a B.S. degree in kinesiology and exercise science.

LINDSEY MORRISON

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS - FIFTH SEASON

Responsible for coordinating all communication efforts for women's gymastics, Lindsey Morrison enters her fifth season with the Sooners in 2022. She handles all media requests for the team, coordinates social media efforts and oversees all women's gymastics content on SoonerSports.com. Morrison is also the primary contact for the Oklahoma volleyball program.

In the summer, Morrison serves as the Local Media Coordinator for the Women's College World Series.

Prior to arriving at Oklahoma, Morrison spent three years at the Unviersity of South Florida where she oversaw communications efforts for women's soccer, softball, baseball, men's soccer and men's and women's tennis. As a student intern at OU from 2012-2014, she served as the lead contact for women's tennis, while assisting with all other sports.

A native of Grand Prairie, Texas, Morrison received a Bachelor of Arts in journalism with a specialization in public relations in 2013 from Oklahoma.

REID SINDELAR

STUDENT MANAGER - FOURTH SEASON

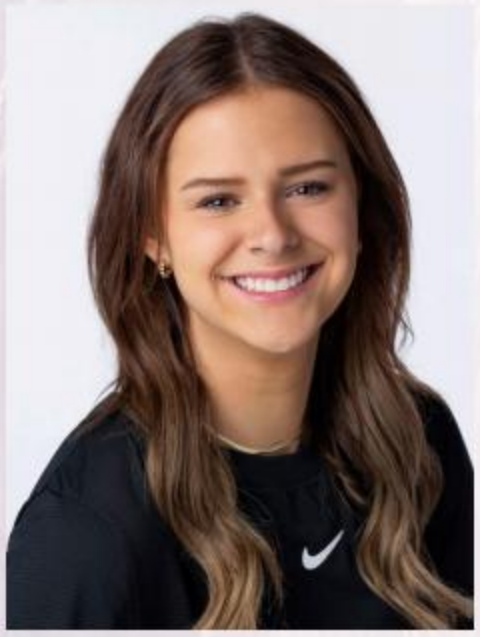
Reid Sindelar is in her fourth season as a student manager for the women's gymnastics team, assisting with many of the day-to-day aspects of the women's gymnastics program. Sindelar is responsible for moving mats and boards for team on events, gym maintenance, laundry and other duties as assigned.

Sindelar graduated from Millard West High School in Omaha, Neb., where she was a member of her high school varisty diving team. Sindelar was a gymnast for 15 years, beginning at age three and competing through her senior year of high school. Prior to OU, she was a level 9 gymnast at Omega School of Gymnastics.

Sindelar is a senior majoring in biomedical engineering with a medical humanities minor.

SYDNEY KUDLAC

STUDENT MANAGER - FIRST SEASON



Sydney Kudlac is in her first season as a student manager for the women's gymnastics team, assisting with many of the day-to-day aspects of the women's gymnastics program. Bishop is responsible for moving mats and boards for team on events, gym maintenance, laundry and other duties as assigned.

Kudlac hails from Pilot Point, Texas where she graduated from Pilot Point High School. Kudlac was a gymnast for 12 years at Acheivers Gymnastic Center in Denton, Texas. Her father, Frank, was the head coach at Texas Womens University for 33 years after starting the program in 1978.

Kudlac is a freshman majoring in public relations.

TED BOEHM, M.D.

TEAM PHYSICIAN - 12th SEASON

Dr. Ted Boehm enters his 11th season as the primary care physician for women's gymnastics. Boehm works as a Sports Medicine Physician at the Oklahoma Sports & Orthopedics Institute in Oklahoma City. Boehm also works with OU's football, men's gymnastics, rowing and wrestling teams.

Boehm, originally from Merced, Calif., earned a bachelor's degree in health and sport sciences from the University of Oklahoma in 1999, and his medical degree from the OU College of Medicine in 2003.

Boehm treats any illnesses and injuries of his primary care sports' student athletes at the OU training room or at OU's Goddard Health Center. Boehm also provides sideline and event coverage during men's and women's gymnastics meets, football games and wrestling matches.

MATT DUMIGAN, M.D.

TEAM ORTHOPEDIC SURGEON - SECOND SEASON

Dr. Matt Dumigan, a board-certified orthopedic surgeon from the McBride Orthopedic Hospital in Oklahoma City, is in his first season with the Oklahoma women's gymnastics program in 2021.

A graduate of Louisiana State University and the Louisiana State University School of Medicine in Shreveport, La., Dummigan has worked with multiple sports programs across the state of Oklahoma, including the Oklahoma City Thunder, Oklahoma State Football and the Casady School. He was an assistant team physician for the Denver Broncos and the United States Ski Team from 2004-05.

Dumigan is a member of various professional organizations including the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons and the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine.

JOSEPH HARROZ, JR.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

erving the University of Oklahoma for over 25 years in various leadership roles, Joseph Harroz Jr. was named the 15th president of OU on May 9, 2020. Harroz's previous service to the university includes a one-year term as interim president, nine years as dean of the College of Law and 12 years as general counsel.

As president of OU, Harroz led the development of the university's Strategic Plan — a comprehensive strategy that positions OU as one of the nation's leading public research universities marked by a transformative student experience. At the heart of the plan is the university's fundamental purpose — We Change Lives; three small but powerful words that carry deep meaning. The complete Strategic Plan is available at www.ou.edu/leadon.

Under Harroz's leadership, OU is making strides toward the fulfillment of the Strategic Plan. In fall 2020, OU welcomed its third-largest class in its 130-year history — 35% of which is comprised by historically underrepresented minority groups. OU's research landscape has progressed tremendously in the past year, with OU reaching a record-high $445.9 million in research awards earned through grants and external funding by OU faculty and staff in fiscal year 2020. Oklahoma health care is taking a major step forward with the historic merger formalized in June 2021 between OU and University Hospitals Authority and Trust to join their clinics and hospitals into Oklahoma's first comprehensive academic health system — OU Health. It offers a seamless patient experience with improved outcomes, research-driven care, and access to the latest treatments found nowhere else in the state.

Throughout his term as dean of OU Law, the college earned national recognition, including the highest-ever U.S. News & World Report ranking by any Oklahoma law school and the first law school in the nation to achieve Apple Distinguished School status from Apple, Inc.

A native Oklahoman, Harroz graduated Phi Beta Kappa from OU in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and a minor in zoology. He earned his J.D. in 1992 from Georgetown University Law Center.

JOE CASTIGLIONE

VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAMS AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

It would be difficult to find an athletics administrator who has experienced the long-term success at a legendary program that Joe Castiglione has had at the University of Oklahoma. However, it was his response to the COVID-19 pandemic that demonstrated the leader he really is.

As the pandemic arrived, then continued to worsen, Castiglione helped lead the department through the sudden ending of the academic and athletics year with a calm and determined approach. His leadership gave OU's student-athletes, coaches and staff reasons to be confident that the Sooners would get through the challenges that awaited.

Now in his 23rd year, he leads an OU Athletics Department that hardly resembles the one that welcomed him in July of 1998. OU has won 19 team national championships, half of the all-time university total. He has celebrated 93 conference titles in that same time period. Those numbers would surely be higher if the 2019-20 year had not had winter and spring postseason events wiped out. It's more than success that sets his tenure apart — it is the consistency of that success that makes the department stand apart from others.

By creating a positive culture based on core values, a dynamic vision and a collaborative spirit, Castiglione has made OU Athletics a "destination of choice" and a world-class experience for student-athlete development.

The 2019-20 school year yielded another accomplished campaign in school history despite losing the winter and spring postseason events. A conference title by football in the fall led the way. Throughout the year, OU celebrated a Heisman Trophy runner-up, the 2020 Honda Cup Inspiration Award, the AAI Award in women's gymnastics, the Big 12 male and female Athletes of the Year and two CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, keeping alive a 19-year streak of at least one honoree. It marked the third time for OU to sweep the Big 12 awards and the fifth time in the last six years that OU had at least one of the Athlete of the Year honorees.

The Learfield Director's Cup recognizes overall program excellence. The Sooners have ranked among the top 25 in 17 of his 22 years. With the interruption of competition schedules, the Learfield Director's Cup was not awarded for 2019-20.

GPA numbers and graduation rates continue to set program records. The 2020 spring semester marked the 17th consecutive that OU's student-athletes as a group recorded a 3.00 or better GPA, and graduation rates continue to be among the country's best.

OU Athletics, one of the few remaining self-sustaining departments nationally, has been a model of fiscal responsibility, closing the books in the black in each of the last 22 years, including the pandemic-shortened 2019-20 season. Castiglione's responsible approach has benefited the general campus. Through direct and indirect support, the athletics department provides more than $9 million annually to OU's academics budget. It also established an endowment at Bizzell Library and partnered with the president's office to eliminate the admission fee at OU's internationally known Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art.

Athletics facilities improvement and construction have been carried out at a record pace and Castiglione takes pride in the fact that those improvements have been funded with private donations. Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign for Sooner Sports, that impacted each of OU's sports and became a national model.

Gaylord Family — Oklahoma Memorial Stadium underwent a $160 million renovation, completed prior to the 2018 season, that included enclosing the south end zone and creating new seating options for Sooner fans and new team facilities. Other improvements completed and/or planned included the opening of the Griffin Family Performance Center for men's and women's basketball at Lloyd Noble Center; a $25 million plan to build a new softball stadium; $15 million in renovations at baseball; and new team facilities for gymnastics and tennis. The $75 million Headington Hall provides housing for the general student population as well as student-athletes. The state-of-the-art building opened in August 2013 and won the President's Trophy as the outstanding housing unit on campus four times. It makes OU the leader in providing an engaging community living option for OU students.

Castiglione was named Co-National Athletic Director of the Year in May 2018 by the Sports Business Journal. He had won the award in 2009 and been a finalist in 2016. A survey conducted by Sports Illustrated in the summer of 2017 named him the best athletics director in the country and Stadium selected him in 2020 as the nation's top AD. Other awards and honors include the 2018 Katha Quinn Award (U.S. Basketball Writers of America); 2018 induction into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame; the 2013 John L. Toner Award (National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame); Carl Maddox Sports Management Award (United States Sports Academy); Athletics Director of the Year (Bobby Dodd Foundation); National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame; and the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award (All-American Football Foundation).

He completed a master's of education degree in May 2007 and became an adjunct professor in OU's Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education, teaching graduate classes in marketing, development and leadership in higher education. He serves on the college's board of advocates and received the "Award of Distinction" given by the college in 2019. He was recognized for his distinguished service by OU's College of Arts and Sciences and was named a Price College Distinguished Partner in 2018.

Hired on April 30, 1998, Castiglione previously served as athletics director at Missouri for more than five years. His career began as the sports promotions director at Rice. Other stops included director of athletic fund-raising at Georgetown, then director of communications and marketing at Missouri. He marked his 25th year of serving student-athletes as an athletics director with the 2018-19 academic year.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the university's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007 and was inducted into the State of Missouri's Sports Hall of Fame in November 2015.

He was named to the College Football Playoff Committee in January 2018, making him the only person to serve on that committee as well as the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball and Baseball committees. He has served on multiple NCAA committees and commissions including the NCAA's Board of Governor's Commission to Combat Sexual Violence on Campus, NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group and the United States Olympic Committee Athlete Career and Education Strategic Working Group. He also serves on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors.

Castiglione is a past president of both the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He also served three terms as the chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors. A former member of the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees, he is a highly requested speaker at annual conventions and continuing education institutes. In November 2011, his hometown recognized him by selecting him for the Broward County (Fla.) Sports Hall of Fame.

Locally, he served the United Way of Norman, among other organizations. His third term as OU's campus co-chair resulted in the highest recorded contributions ever by faculty, staff and students to the United Way of Norman's annual campaign. He encourages student-athletes and athletics staff to participate in those efforts as well, and in 2018-19, OU Athletics representatives logged more than 5,000 hours of community service.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Jr., who graduated from OU in May 2019, and Jonathan, who is an OU sophomore.

DID IT FOR DAVE

The Sooners, who dedicated the 2019 season to Dave Richardson, the late husband of their athletic trainer Jenn, posted a 198.3375 in the Four on the Floor to claim the national title at the 2019 NCAA Championships. With Dave in their hearts and on their minds, the Sooners would be unbeatable as they claimed their fourth overall national championship. OU posted a 32-0 record, the second undefeated season in program history.

On the outside, the season looked easy, but the 2019 team fought more adversity than most will ever know. When Dave passed in mid-February, the team turned their focus to fighting for a purpose and something bigger than gymanstics. With #DIFD written on their hands for every meet, the Sooners won an eighth straight Big 12 Championship, a 10th straight regional title, produced three individual national champions, 18 All-Americans and closed out the season with their third title in four years.

“It is unbelievable That was the cumulation of what our season was and tonight Dave was absolutely lifting us up. I know Jenn just lost her cookies at the end of the meet and so did we, because she said to me ‘All I can say is there must be a greater purpose for it’. This must be it. Everyone can agree that it was worth it.”- head coach K.J. Kindler

ENDED ON EMPTY

The biggest stage in the sport couldn't intimidate the Sooners as they soared to an unprecedented 198.3875, setting the NCAA record for a team score in a Super Six– and securing their second-straight and third overall national championship in 2017. The Super Six appearance was the seventh in the last eight seasons and in each of those, the Sooners finished within the top three nationally. OU rolled from the beginning with a 49.5875 on bars and a 49.7000 on beam. The Sooners posted a perfect 33-0 record, the first undefeated season in program history.

Perfection doesn't come easy, and the 2017 Sooners used heart and grit to make history as the first Sooner squad to post an undefeated season. With its second-straight national championship and third in the last four years, a sixth-straight Big 12 Championship, eighth-straight regional title, two individual national champions, and 12 All-America honors, the 2017 squad cemented itself in history as one of the most prolific teams the program has ever seen.

"It felt crazy, really. I almost felt like I wasn't here—it was that amazing. To have that kind of a performance from a coaching standpoint, wow. As an athlete, to be in that state of mind and to get your body to do what they got their bodies to do tonight over and over and over, performance after performance—I don't think you see that very often, and I don't know if we've done it at the national championship before the way we did tonight. It's just a really special night." - head coach K.J. Kindler

MADE IT COUNT

The motto for the 2016 Oklahoma squad all season was to make it count. On the sport's biggest stage, the Sooners did just that. With a 197.6750, Oklahoma secured the 2016 NCAA Championship. The NCAA title was their second all-time, with the first coming in 2014. The Super Six appearance was OU's sixth in the last seven seasons and in each of those, OU finished within the top three nationally. With the meet close entering the final rotation, Oklahoma rose to the occasion, using a little bit of Sooner Magic to turn in a 49.5750 on floor. The clinching routine came from sophomore AJ Jackson in the No. 5 spot, whose 9.9125 pushed the Sooners to the top of the leaderboard.

The Sooners entered the postseason with "Make it Count" in mind, striving to be push themselves and be their best each and every meet. This paid off in the form of their NCAA title, capping a season in which the Sooners posted a 38-1-0 overall record, with their lone loss coming in their season opener. Other highlights included nine Sooners earning a program-record 18 All-America honors, an unprecedented fifth straight Big 12 title and seventh consecutive regional crown.

"What do you say? One of the girls this morning, when she woke up, tweeted, 'It felt like Christmas Eve last night—I couldn't go to bed anticipating today.' It turns out that's exactly what it was. Christmas Day is always a wonderful day when you're a kid. Today was just an amazing and wonderful day for these ladies and our entire team. They had to fight for it. We learned a lot last year, I think, and they applied it today." - head coach K.J. Kindler

SOONERS GOT SOUL

April 19 was a night filled with soul and Sooner Magic in Birmingham, Ala., aptly dubbed "The Magic City." Oklahoma hit a then-best score in NCAA Championships history at the 2014 Super Six team finals, earning a 198.175 to capture co-national championship honors alongside the Florida Gators. The Sooners set program records at an NCAA Championship on every event, scoring no lower than a 49.500 on any apparatus and posting 17 individual scores of 9.9 or higher.

It was a year made to rewrite the record books. Oklahoma's team score of 198.175 in the Super Six finals was a new NCAA Championship record, while its 198.000 at the 2014 Big 12 Championship was a conference championship record mark. OU set new program records on vault (49.700) and bars (49.575) while posting four overall team scores, four vault scores, two bars scores, two beam scores and two floor scores that rank in the top five team marks all-time at Oklahoma.

"Our team was just in a magical place from the second we got here tonight. We worked through practice, we worked through yesterday's meet, but today we didn't work at all. There was very little error from our team. That's the best we can do. We knew coming in that we could do it. I don't think anyone else really gave us a chance. But, I think that we knew we could do it. Now the dream is a reality." - head coach K.J. Kindler

TOP OF THE PODIUM

WITH JUST FOUR INDIVIDUAL NATIONAL TITLES BEFORE 2014, ALL WON BY KELLY GARRISON IN 1987 AND 1988, THE ATHLETES TO COME THROUGH THE OU GYMNASTICS PROGRAM IN THE LAST FEW YEARS HAVE BEGUN CEMENTING THEMSELVES ON THE TOP OF THE PODIUM. TAYLOR SPEARS BROKE A 26-YEAR DROUGHT TO WIN THE NATIONAL TITLE ON BEAM IN 2014 AND HAS COMBINED WITH FOUR OTHER SOONERS TO EARN 13 INDIVIDUAL NATIONAL TITLES IN THE LAST EIGHT YEARS. MAGGIE NICHOLS IS THE PROGRAM RECORD HOLDER WITH SIX INDIVIDUAL TITLES, INCLUDING THREE AT THE 2018 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS AND BACK-TO-BACK ALL-AROUND TITLES IN 2018 AND 2019. NICHOLS' VICTORY ON FLOOR AND BRENNA DOWELL'S FIRST-PLACE MARK IN ON VAULT IN 2018 GAVE OKLAHOMA AN INDIVIDUAL ON ALL FOUR EVENTS AND THE ALL-AROUND, ONE OF JUST EIGHT PROGRAMS TO ACCOMPLISH THE FEAT. IN 2019, NICHOLS AND DOWELL WENT BACK-TO-BACK ON VAULT AND FLOOR, WINNING NATIONAL TITLES ON THE APPARATUS THEIR TEAMMATE HAD SECURED THE YEAR BEFORE. IN 2021, ANASTASIA WEBB JOINED AN EXCLUSIVE CLUB, BECOMING THE NINTH GYMNAST IN NCAA HISTORY TO EARN THREE TITLES IN ONE CHAMPIONSHIP AS SHE WON VAULT, FLOOR AND THE ALL-AROUND.

KELLYGARRISON

1987 NCAA All-Around Champion
1988 NCAA All-Around Champion, Uneven Bars Champion, Balance Beam Champion

Kelly Garrison certainly made the most of her two seasons with the Sooners, racking up four NCAA individual titles en route to seven All-America honors. The Altus, Okla., native dominated the 1987 season like few collegiate gymnasts have ever done, winning the NCAA all-around title with a record score of 39.150, securing event wins on every apparatus at the Big Eight Championship, winning the all-around crown at 17 of 18 dual meets and setting three NCAA records in the process. Garrison qualfied for the event finals in three of four events at the 1987 NCAA Championships, but had to withdraw from vault and floor exercise due to an ankle injury. Throughout the 1987 campaign, Garrison topped the previous NCAA all-around record (38.85), held by Megan Marsden (Utah) and Elfi Schlegel (Florida), seven times. Garrison followed up her spectacular season by sweeping all five individual titles at the Big Eight Championship for the second straight season. She then earned All-America status in every category possible at the 1988 NCAA Championships, securing three national titles in the process.

TAYLORSPEARS

2014 NCAA Balance Beam Champion

Taylor Spears rose to incredible heights throughout her career at Oklahoma, culminating in a spot on the podium that no Sooner had held for 26 years. Spears became Oklahoma's first NCAA Champion since 1987 as a senior, winning the national title on beam with a 9.925 at individual event finals. An All-Big 12 pick on beam her freshman year, Spears contributed primarily as a three-event specialist in her first year at OU. Despite not competing on vault as a freshman. Spears leapt head-first into the all-around for Oklahoma as a sophomore, earning her second-career All-Big 12 award on beam. Spears' breakout season came in 2013 as the junior rose to become one of the nation's top all-arounders. The Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, Spears won her first two career All-America honors on bars and in the all-around at the NCAA Championships. She was also the only gymnast in the nation to win the all-around title at both the conference and regional level. Spears capped her stellar ascent in style as a senior, earning first-team All-America honors on both bars and beam and capturing the NCAA beam title. She was also a finalist for the prestigious AAI Award, recognizing the nation's top female senior gymnast.

NICOLELEHRMANN

2017 NCAA Uneven Bars Champion

One of the steadiest competitors on the unveven bars, Nicole Lehrmann wasn't a name most would have standing on the top of the podium at the 2017 NCAA Championships. Though consistent throughout the year, hitting 100 percent of her routines and putting up a perfect score, Lehrmann ranked outside the top 10 at the end of the season, coming in 12th with an RQS of 9.910. Her time to shine would come during the first semifinal of the 2017 NCAA Championships as the sophomore earned a 9.950 on the uneven bars to secure just the third individual national championship for the Sooners. Lehrmann continued her success in the 2018 season, racking up a streak of 17 straight meets with a score of at least 9.9 on the event and placing third at the 2018 NCAA Championships.

MAGGIENICHOLS

2017 NCAA Uneven Bars Champion
2018 NCAA All-Around Champion. Uneven Bar Champion Floor Exercise Champion
2019 NCAA All-Around Champion, Vault Champion

Maggie Nichols was an unstoppable force as soon as she arrived at Oklahoma in 2017. She took the college gymnastics world by storm as a freshman and looked poised to take home the all-around title at the end of the season. Though a fall on beam would prevent her from the title, Nichols came home an individual champion with a 9.950 on the bars to secure the title with fellow teammate Nicole Lehrmann. Nichols would get redemption in the al-around in 2018, bringing home an OU-record three individual titles in one season. Nichols tied the NCAA Championships all-around record with a 39.825 to secure the top spot on the podium. With a perfect 10 on bars to become the first gymnast to ever complete two "Gym Slams", Nichols picked up her second career title on the event. She wrapped up her incredible night with a 9.9625 on floor to take home her third title of the night and fourth of her career. In 2019, Nichols became the sixth gymnast in NCAA history to repeat as the all-around champion, earning the title with a 39.7125. Nichols, who suffered an injury in early January, had competed all-around in just two meets prior to earning her second all-around crown. She also added a national title on vault, leaving her just needing beam in order to have a title on every event and the all-around. Nichols' senior season was cut short due to COVID-19, ultimately leaving her without a final chance to make even more history. With six individual career titles, Nichols is now the OU program record holder.

BRENNADOWELL

2018 NCAA Vault Champion
2019 NCAA Floor Champion

Brenna Dowell was arguably one of the most powerful gymnasts in the NCAA. From her incredible tumbling on floor to her impressive vaults, Dowell shined throughout her collegiate career. After finishing just shy of the top of the podium in 2015 with a runner-up finish on floor, Dowell would find herself in the top spot on a different event three years later. During the 2018 season, Dowell had one of the most powerful Yurchenko 1.5s, earning her first career perfect 10 on the event at UCLA on Feb. 4. She spent most of the year ranked in the top five on the event, finishing the regular season ranked third in the country. During Semifinal II of the NCAA Championships Dowell had a near perfect vault, earning a 9.9375 to win the vault title. Dowell was just the fifth Sooner to earn an individual crown and just the third to earn two as she added a floor title to her resume in 2019. In her final season of collegiate competition, Dowell broke out her signature move, a front double pike known as the "Dowell" in international competition. At the 2019 NCAA Championship, Dowell earned a 9.95 in Semifinal II to earn her second career individual national championship.

ANASTASIAWEBB

2021 NCAA All-Around Champion, Vault Champion, Floor Champion

Anastasia Webb wrapped up her collegiate career by cementing herself as one of the best gymnasts to wear the crimson and cream. She became just the ninth gymnast in NCAA history and third Sooner to win three titles at one championship. One of the most underrated gymnasts in the NCAA, Webb stunned the gym world with her All-Around victory in 2021. She was nearly perfect on vault and showed off her dynamic dancing on floor to take home titles on both events. Webb achieved a feat no other Sooner has accomplished as she was named a Top Three Finalist for the prestigous Honda Cup Award. Webb was the Honda Sport Award Winner for Gymnastics, Big 12 Female Athlete of the Year, Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, an AAI Award Finalist and five-time All-American in 2021. She ranks third all-time in OU history with three national titles.

NCAA HISTORY

Oklahoma has soared to new heights under head coach K.J. Kindler, building on the incredible tradition of Sooner gymnastics. OU has reached the postseason every year since 1998 and has advanced to the NCAA Championships each season since 2004, including every year under Kindler.

In 2014, Kindler led OU to the ultimate achievement in NCAA gymnastics: its first-ever NCAA title. She then coached the Sooners to the height of the collegiate gymnastics world again in 2016, 2017 and 2019. Since taking the helm at OU, Kindler has led Oklahoma to nine NCAA Finals appearances. OU has never placed lower than third in the final round of NCAA competition and owns five top-two NCAA finishes in the past six seasons alone.

Five different Sooners have earned individual national championships since Kindler's arrival. Taylor Spears broke a 26-year drought, earning the top spot on beam in 2014. 2017 saw Nicole Lehrmann and Maggie Nichols earn co-national champion honors on bars, while Nichols and Brenna Dowell combined for four titles in 2018 and three titles in 2019. Anastasia Webb earned three national titles, including the all-around, in her final season in 2021. Under Kindler, 13 individual national titles have been won.

At the regional level, OU has been dominant under Kindler. The Sooners have captured 11 consecutive NCAA regional titles and have not finished lower than second since 2003.

2021 TOP THREE FINALIST

Anastasia Webb capped her incredible career at the University of Oklahoma as she was named a Top Three Finalist for the Honda Cup by the Collegiate Women's Sports Awards.

The Morton Grove, Ill., native became the first gymnast in program history to be named a Top Three Finalist. These three finalists for the program's top honor exemplify the very best attributes of all Honda Sports Award winners, including excellence and leadership in their sport, as well as outstanding academic achievement and community involvement. The Top Three Award began in 2009-10.

Since the introduction of the Top Three Award, only one other gymnast has been honored as a finalist (Kim Jacob, Alabama, 2014). Webb became just the second Sooner to be a top three finalist, joining softball's Keilani Ricketts who was a finalist in 2012 and the Honda Cup Winner in 2013.

Webb was just the ninth gymnast in NCAA history to earn three national titles in one season when she achieved the feat in 2021. Her three individual crowns rank third all-time in OU history. The Morton Grove, Ill., native claimed the all-around, vault and floor national championships with one of her best performances of the season.

The 2021 Big 12 Female Athlete of the Year, Big 12 Gymnast of the Year, Region 4 Gymnast of the Year and an AAI Finalist, Webb helped lead Oklahoma to an NCAA Runner-Up finish in her senior season. Along the way, she picked up All-America honors and was the only gymnast in the nation to earn first-team accolades on all four events and in the all-around. Webb now has 20 career All-America honors to her name to rank second all-time in OU history.

In 2021, Webb earned four perfect 10s with two on vault and one each on bars and beam. She earned a career high of 39.850 in the all-around as she racked up 33 career event titles. Webb now ranks second all-time in OU history with 67 event wins.

Webb competed in every single meet of her OU career, picking up nine All-Big 12 team accolades, three individual Big 12 crowns and two major Big 12 awards. The No. 1 ranked gymnast in the nation on vault in 2021, Webb also excelled in the classroom as a three-time Academic All-Big 12 First Team selection. She was a 2021 Academic All-District selection and a 2021 CoSIDA Academic All-American, the first since 2014.

A member of OU's team that claimed the 2019 NCAA Championship, Webb was a vital part of OU's success. During her OU career, the Sooners secured an NCAA top-two finish each year, earned two consecutive NCAA Regional titles and two straight Big 12 Conference Championships.

Webb was 100 percent in participation, having competed in every single meet during her career. She boasts a hit percentage of 95.0, nailing 156 of 164 career routines. Webb competed in the all-around in 47 of her 54 career meets and competed at least three events in 53 of 54. She never missed an opportunity to compete on bars or beam, competing those two events in all 54 career meets.

As a senior, she set her career highs left and right. She recorded perfect 10s on beam and vault, a career-high of 9.975 on bars and a 9.9625 on floor. Her all-around career high sits at an incredible 39.850. Currently,

In 2018, Webb became just the third freshman in program history to earn a perfect score on any event with a 10.0 on beam. She was named the 2018 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year after her breakout season that saw her named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week seven times. She was also the Big 12 champion on floor.

2020 AAI AWARD WINNER

Maggie Nichols became the first Oklahoma women's gymnast to capture the prestigious AAI Award in 2020.

Often called the "Heisman Trophy" of women's gymnastics, the AAI Award is voted on by NCAA women's gymnastics college head coaches with six finalists selected. The award is presented to the most outstanding senior female gymnast in the country. Nichols was chosen out of six finalists, including Kennedi Edney (LSU), Taylor Houchin (Nebraska), Maddie Karr (Denver), Mollie Korth (Kentucky) and Kyla Ross (UCLA).

The Little Canada, Minn., native was Oklahoma's ninth consecutive finalist for the AAI award, joining Megan Ferguson (2012), Brie Olson (2013), Taylor Spears (2014), Erica Brewer (2015), Haley Scaman (2016), Chayse Capps (2017), AJ Jackson (2018) and Brenna Dowell (2019).

A member of OU's 2017 and 2019 National Championship teams, Nichols was a key component of Oklahoma's dominance during her four years as a Sooner. During her illustrious career, the Sooners secured two national championships, a runner-up finish, three consecutive regional finals and three straight Big 12 Championships.

After winning a gold medal at the 2015 Women's World Championships and competing at the U.S. Olympic Trials, Nichols left the elite world to join the Sooners in 2017 and lead them to their third national title as she became the first gymnast in NCAA history to score a perfect 10 on balance beam in the team finals.

Nichols boasts a hit percentage of 98.9, nailing 180 of her 182 collegiate routines. As a sophomore and junior, she hit 100 percent of her routines. She boasts the fourth-highest all-around score in NCAA history with a 39.925, set in 2017.

After setting a career-best all-around score of 39.925 in 2017, Nichols added three other scores of 39.900 in the all-around. She is one of seven gymnasts to reach 39.900 but is the only gymnast in NCAA history with more than one score of 39.900 or better. Nichols holds four of the top 10 spots in the all-time all-around score list. Her 39.925 ranks fourth, while her three marks of 39.900 are tied for fifth.

The list of accolades Nichols garnered over her four years is extensive. She was a six-time individual national champion, 13-time NCAA All-American and 17-time WCGA All-American. Nichols joined an exclusive club in 2019 as she became just the sixth gymnast in NCAA history to win back-to-back all-around titles at the NCAA Championship. She won at least one individual title in each of her seasons at OU. Nichols owns two titles on bars, two in the all-around, one on vault and one on floor. She also has a runner-up finish on bars (2019) and beam (2018).

In 2019, Nichols was named the Honda Sport Award Winner for women's gymnastics and was a finalist in all four years of her career. She was a two-time South Central Region Gymnast of the Year in both 2017 and 2018. Nichols was a six-time Big 12 individual champion and won an individual title on all four events and the all-around. She was the 2017 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year along with being named the 2018 and 2020 Big 12 Gymnast of the Year. She earned 17 All-Big 12 honors and is a 24-time Big 12 weekly award winner.

Nichols rewrote the OU record books from the minute she first stepped on campus. After being just the second freshman to ever score a perfect 10 on any event, Nichols went one step further by securing a perfect 10 on every single event to secure a "Gym Slam." Not only that, she was the first athlete in NCAA history to complete not one, but two "Gym Slams" after securing a perfect score on every event as a sophomore. Her 22 perfect scores are an OU program record. Nichols also boasts the program record for event titles with 148 and holds the record on bars (35), beam (30) and the all-around (32).

As a freshman, Nichols picked up her first national title on uneven bars, joining an elite squad of OU gymnasts. Her sophomore season, she added three more titles including her first all-around title, a second title on bars and first on floor. As a junior, she set the program record for national titles won with six as she defended her all-around title and earned a national title on vault. Before her career was ended due to COVID-19, Nichols needs just a title on beam to become just the second gymnast to win a national title on every event and the all-around. The senior ranks third in NCAA history with her six career national titles.

Nichols was not only an incredible gymnast on the floor but has been an inspiration to the entire gymnastics' community. In 2018, she came forward as "Athlete A" in the USA Gymnastics scandal involving Larry Nassar. Nichols' courage and bravery to release her statement just days before the season was set to start garnered her the 2019 NCAA Inspiration Award. Since coming forward, she has continued to be an inspiration and role model to so many in the gymnastics world and beyond.

ALL-AMERICANS

SINCE AMY PRIEST EARNED THE FIRST ALL-AMERICAN DISTINCTION AT OU IN 1985, 179 ALL-AMERICANS HAVE COMPETED FOR THE CRIMSON AND CREAM. THE MOST DECORATED ALL-AMERICAN IN OU HISTORY IS 2020 GRADUATE MAGGIE NICHOLS. NICHOLS WAS A FIVE-TIME ALL-AMERICAN IN 2017, 2018 AND 2019, BRINGING HER TOTAL TO 18 IN HER ILLUSTRIOUS CAREER. IN 2021, ANASTASIA WEBB AND OLIVIA TRAUTMAN JOINED AN ELITE GROUP AS THEY EACH EARNED FIVE ALL-AMERICA HONORS. ONLY FIVE SOONERS HAVE ACCOMPLISHED THE FEAT, INCLUDING KELLY GARRISON, CHAYSE CAPPS AND NICHOLS.
